VOL. XXVI, NO. 76 GAINESVILLE, FLORIDA, THURSDAY, MAY 6, 1909 TEN CENTS A WEEK

NUMEROUS LIQUOR CASES BEFORE CIRCUIT COURT

H. L. Setzer of High Springs Plead Guilty to Charge. Bexley-Osteen Case Today.

The Circuit Court was called to order at 10:45 o'clock Wednesday morning, Judge J. T. Wills presiding, with other court officials in their respective positions.

The grand jury came into open court, and when the roll was called and each juror responded as his name was called, the following report was made:

State vs. John Atkinson and Cliff Atkinson, breaking and entering a railroad depot with intent to commit a misdemeanor, a true bill.

State vs. J. E. English, forgery, and uttering a forged instrument, a true bill. Defendant was called, and, failing to answer, bond was estreated and the clerk was instructed to issue capias.

Defendants Arraigned.

Will Spjarks, the youthful negro who was on Tuesday indicted upon a charge of rape, was arraigned, when the indictment was read to him and he entered a plea of not guilty. Sparks will be represented by Attorney T. B. Ellis, Jr., by appointment of the court, the defendant stating that he was unable to employ a lawyer.

John and Cliff Atkinson, two young white men who were indicted upon a charge of breaking and entering the depot at Tacoma, were brought into court, and took their position on the prisoners' bench. Upon being informed by the court of the indictment and its specifications, Judge Wills asked the defendants whether or not they had employed counsel, to which they replied in the negative, but stated they would do so immediately if given the opportunity, whereupon they were permitted to secure a lawyer, engaging Attorney Evans Haile. The father of the young men was present during this proceeding. The State in this case announced ready for trial.

Pleaded Guilty to Selling Liquor.

H. L. Setzer of High Springs was arraigned upon a charge of selling liquor in a county which had voted against the sale of same. When asked by State Attorney Rivers whether he was guilty or not guilty, with an impatient hesitancy the defendant replied "guilty." Mr. Setzer was permitted to go until Tuesday of the coming week under the same bond which he has been carrying since his indictment.

Bonds Ordered Estreated.

In the case of I. P. Stephens and Lou Stephens, charged with selling liquor in a dry county, the names of defendants being called with no response, bond was estreated and capias ordered. Attorney Evans Haile, who represents the defendants, stated for the information of the court that Mr. Stephens had been in attendance upon the court during Tuesday, but that in the afternoon he went to Alachua for his wife, the other defendant, and requested the court to withold estreating of the bond until afternoon, as his clients would be present in the court room at that time. State Attorney Rivers insisted upon estreatment, however, which was granted.

Court adjourned until 2:30 o'clock p. m.

Afternoon Session.

The afternoon session of the court was called at 3:45 p. m., there being no business to require the attention of the court until that hour.

Pate Sims, charged with breaking and entering a freight car with intent to commit a misdemeanor, was first called. Sims, who is nothing more than a lad of eighteen or thereabout, and who had slept in jail overnight because he could not secure bond, stated through his attorney, J. N. Stripling, that his bond had been secured. Sims came into court wearing short trousers, and looked the boy all over. His features are entirely juvenile, his actions carry out his expression, and his manner appears entirely indifferent, as though of a modest, indifferent boy. Pate cannot be more than eighteen, and may be a few years less in age.

"The court has set this bond at $200," quickly but cautiously remarked Judge Wills, as the defendant was placed in plain view before him.

"The bond has been secured," replied Attorney Stripling, for the defense.

"Then, under the circumstances, the bond having been secured with all the requirements, the defendant is discharged for the further order of the court."

Pate looked satisfied, and felt that he had won a great victory. He got up to leave, when Sheriff Ramsey said: "Pate, there is seventy-five cents due this office for executing a new bond. Have you got the money?"

Pate instantly replied that he had not the money, but said: "Mr. Sheriff, if you will give me ten minutes I will 'raise' the seventy-five," to which the sheriff answered, after looking into his eyes, he was willing to give. Pate came back in less than ten minutes with the seventy-five cents required as the fee, and was released under bond until further ordered.

J. E. English, colored, who was arraigned by indictment in the morning upon a charge of forgery and uttering a forged instrument, was brought into court by Sheriff Ramsey. There seemed to be a misunderstanding in this case, as English declared he had been at the court constantly during the session, except at the period when the indictment was returned and his presence was desired. He entered a plea of not guilty.

The afternoon session was taken in arraigning the following defendants:

L. J. Knight, criminal trespass and grand larceny; arraigned and pleaded not guilty.

Several Liquor Cases.

Sam Williams, charged with selling liquor in a dry county. Name called and defendant being indisposed, suffering in the corridor below, postponement was taken. Williams appeared to be suffering from some nervous trouble which would not permit his removal, hence he was sent to a hospital. His case will be taken up later.

Alex Stephens, charged with selling liquor in a county which has voted against the sale of same, plead guilty.

John Hall was arraigned upon a charge of selling liquor in a county which had voted against the sale of same. Plead not guilty and a bond of $250 was required.

Lydia Drake, an old colored woman well-known in Gainesville, and who resided for a long time on West Church street, afterwards on North Arredondo, and who is now engaged in the restaurant business on West Union street, was arraigned on the indictment of selling liquor in a dry county, and the woman indignantly pleaded not guilty. She begged the court for the privilege of giving an immediate bond, but the sheriff took charge in the regular order.

There being no further business, the court adjourned until 9 o'clock this morning, when the juror venires, both of which are special, will be returnable at 9 o'clock.

The Bexley-Osteen Case.

The case of the State vs. Bexley and Osteen, murder, is set for today, but it is not probable that a jury can be secured before Friday night or Saturday, as considerable difficulty is anticipated in securing same. The jury will be empanelled as quickly as possible with all respect to fairness, however, and it is believed that this famous case will be started in earnest before the close of the present week.

Last Night's Performance.

The vaudeville performance put on at the New Baird last night was largely attended and well received.

It still further proved that Gainesville has some amateurs of much ability and the audience showed their appreciation of their efforts by liberal applause.

WILL COPY OCALA LAW.

Committee to Recommend Same Ordinance as Now Prevails There.

J. A. Goodwin, who was made chairman of the committee appointed for the purpose of making some recommendation as to the "blue law" in Gainesville, has finally decided on what will be offered.

He has secured a copy of the Ocala ordinance in reference to Sunday closing and the committee will submit it to the meeting of the City Council on Friday night for adoption or rejection.

This law provides that all drug stores, cool drink stands and such places remain open for business, as well as that all necessities can be dispensed on the Sabbath.

The ordinance does not contemplate that fruit stands can remain open, but they will doubtless be allowed to sell goods behind closed doors.

WAILES CLAIM WILL NOT GO BEFORE COURT

Senate Kills the Harris Bill Which Sought That End. Bill for Electric Chair Introduced.

TALLAHASSEE, May 5.—After a long debate the Senate yesterday killed the Harris bill which was intended to enable the Wailes claim to be brought against the State through the courts. The vote to indefinitely postpone the measure stood 14 to 12.

Senator Harris spoke for over an hour and eloquently argued for the rights of Col. Wailes and for the passage of the bill in order that suit might be brought against the State before a jury in a State court.

Several amendments were offered, but were turned down.

Senator Johnson opposed the measure, though he held that the State should pay any rightful claim if brought before the Legislature.

The chief arguments against the measure were that it was unconstitutional and also that it was in the nature of class legislation.

Some who voted to indefinitely postpone it explained their votes, saying they would be glad to vote for the claim of Col. Wailes if it could be proven right before the Senate, but they opposed the enabling bill.

"Gentlemen," said Senator Harris, "the injustice the State has done Col. Wailes partakes much of the same injustice that was done the State by the Federal Government for fifty years."

Senator Johnson believed that the parties are not entitled to over $89,-293.65, the percentage on the amount actually collected.

Senator Cone said many poor people with small claims should not be kept out if one with a large claim is to be allowed the claim.

"It would be a disgrace to allow one man with a large claim to sue the State, but to shut out the small ones though their claims be fully as just. I believe in special privileges for none."

Senator Cone offered an amendment proposing that no fixed amount should be set in the enabling act.

Senator Buckman spoke at length in behalf of the bill. He held that to let the bars down entirely would result in the courts being clogged with trumped-up claims against the State.

Senator McLeod spoke in favor of the amendment, claiming that the bill as it stood is little short of class legislation.

Senator Williams opposed the measure.

Senator Miller opposed the passage of the bill as it stood, though he did not object to the payment by the State of any just claim. He held that the bill would result in many big lawyer fees.

Senator Crill reviewed some of the old history of the case, and in behalf of the claim.

Senator Broome said he believed the claim to be a just claim, but feared the proposed measure would be unconstitutional.

On a division, the Senate voted 12 to 12 on the Cone amendment to the amendment, and Mr. Hudson voted no. Lost.

On the original amendment, the vote stood 14 to 13.

Senator Leggett moved indefinite postponement. Adopted, 14 to 12.

One of the most important measures introduced in the Senate was that by Senator Williams, prohibiting sale of liquor between 6 o'clock in the evening and 6 o'clock in the morning.

A bill by Senator Hosford creates a State forestry commission and is intended to conserve the forest resources of the State.

The House.

All legal executions in this State will take place in the Duval county jail via the electric chair, if a bill introduced by Representative McKenzie of Putnam in the House yesterday is adopted. The bill provides that the electric chair shall replace the gallows for legal executions and appropriates $1,000 for the equipment of such a chair in the Duval county jail, where all receiving the death sentence will be taken to be executed.

Representative Taylor of Hillsborough introduced a bill for the payment of the Tampa State Fair certificates.

The afternoon session was taken up with bills of minor importance, though the Neeley bill creating the office of pardon attorney was discussed at some length, but was finally left over until Wednesday.

Daughters of Confederacy Meet at St. Augustine

ST AUGUSTINE, May 5.—Delegates have arrived from all sections of the State for the fourteenth annual convention of the Florida Division, United Daughters of the Confederacy, which was called to order in St. Joseph's auditorium this morning at 9:30 o'clock. In order that there would be no delays with the business of the opening session, the credential committee met at the chapter rooms last night to prepare its report. The executive committee also held an advance meeting.

Everything is in readiness for the convention. The convention hall has been appropriately and prettily decorated by the members of the Anna Dummett Chapter and everything has been done by the local members for the pleasure and comfort of the visiting delegates.

What promises to be one of the most interesting features of the convention will be the State historical meeting, which will be held in the auditorium this evening, commencing at 8 o'clock.

The State historian has arranged a most interesting program for this meeting, including music by the chorus and convention, instrumental and vocal music, sketches and papers by members of the various State chapters and will close with the singing of "Dixie."

William Jennings Bryan Writes Florida Legislature

TALLAHASSEE, May 5.—A lengthy letter from Hon. William Jennings Bryan was sent to the Legislature yesterday by Governor Gilchrist. In submitting the missive the Governor said:

"Gentlemen of the Legislature—I herewith enclose to you for your consideration copies of a communication received by me from Hon. William Jennings Bryan.

"In a letter to me he states that, owing to previous engagements, it will be impossible for him to arrive at Tallahassee before the 4th or 5th of June, being about the time of the adjournment of the Legislature. He further states:

"'I think, therefore, that I ought to send a letter to be read to the Legislature rather than attempt to make a visit to your State this spring.

"'I appreciate very much the honor done me by the Legislature and by yourself, and if I had received the invitation earlier I would have so made my plans as to have accepted.

"'I will enclose a letter which I will ask you to deliver to the Legislature.'

"I have the honor to be very respectfully,

"ALBERT W. GILCHRIST,
"Governor."

After expressing his regrets upon being unable to visit Tallahassee before the close of the legislative session, Mr. Bryan explained his views on a number of subjects, some of which are considered issues before the present Legislature. Speaking of Conscience vs. Constituents, Mr. Bryan says that it is sometimes argued that a representative should obey his conscience rather than his constituents. "My answer is that one must recognize that his constituents have conscience

RAISING OF REVENUE A SERIOUS PROBLEM

PRESENT SESSION CALLED TO MAKE PROVISION.

But Figures Make It Doubtful if Passage of Payne Tariff Bill Will Remedy the Matter.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—How does Senator Aldrich intend to raise sufficient revenue to run the Government?

This would seem like a simple question for the men in charge of the finances of the United States Government to answer. Yet no explanation that explains is to be had in all Washington.

The present special session of Congress was called to solve this problem, and everyone thought a tariff would be framed that would provide sufficient revenue to not only pay the running expenses of the Government, but that would make up for the annual deficit of $100,000,000, (due to simon-pure extravagance.)

Republican Senators—even Aldrich's fellow-members of the finance committee—have demanded of the Senate boss information that would make clear by what feature of his bill he sees a way to raise requisite revenue to conduct the Government. In response to this plea, Senator Aldrich made a speech attempting to show that the pending bill would raise the requisite amount of revenue. His statements have since been torn to pieces and shown to have been rank impossibilities. The exploding of his theories was followed by a further demand for light. But everyone is in the dark.

The public—to say nothing of Representatives and Senators—is interested in knowing whether the bill now before the Senate will accomplish the purpose of this extra session. For this reason the essential features of the measure should be explained.

The Dingley law carries an average rate of duty of 44.95 per cent. The largest amount of revenue that has been raised under this law in any one year was $332,233,362, in 1907. The average rate of duty under the pending Senate bill is 47.77 per cent; the estimated revenues $339,052,679—a higher average rate of duties and an estimated increase of revenues of only $6,819,317.

In his speech in the Senate Senator Aldrich predicted that if his bill became a law as it now stands and with the administrative features that he had decided upon, the treasury receipts for 1911 would be about $94,000,000 greater than they were for 1908, and $32,000,000 in excess of those for 1907. The high-water mark in customs receipts, as shown above, was during the last year. In 1908 they were $268,113,120. Senator Aldrich adopts the receipts for 1907, which were over $64,000,000 greater than last year, as the basis for his calculations.

What the public is vitally concerned about is whether with an average rate of duty 2.82 per cent higher under the Senate bill than under the existing law, there is any foundation for the prediction of the Republican leader that the revenues will be almost $100,000,000 larger in 1911 than they were last year. How is such an unprecedented increase to be brought about?

Can it come in part in consequence of increased importations of articles in the sugar schedule, which shows a proposed average rate of .27 per cent higher than the average rate in the Dingley law?

Can it come in part from the lumber schedule, which Mr. Payne showed in his report to the House would produce only $2,926,252 of revenue as against $3,650,054 under the Dingley law?

Can it come in part from chemicals, oils, and paints, upon which the Senate bill imposes average duties .51 per cent higher than the average rate in the Dingley law?

Or in part from agricultural products and provisions, with 1.86 per cent greater average rate than under the Dingley law?

Or in part from cotton manufactures bearing an increased tariff tax of 2.36 per cent over the Dingley rates?

Or from flax, hemp, and jute manufactures, with increased average rates of .40 per cent?

Or from pulp papers and books, with 2.27 per cent increase?

Or from sundries carrying a .55 per cent raise?

These advances do not take into consideration the administrative provision whereby any rate may be advanced 25 per cent under certain conditions.

Out of fourteen schedules in the Senate bill, nine of them show increases over the average rate in the existing law and the rate is decreased in but three, while two are maintained at the present rate.

Senator Aldrich reasons that a higher rate will bring more revenue into the treasury. This is the reverse from what tariff experience shows. The higher the import tax on the schedules above mentioned, the less revenue for the Government, because it will be less profitable for foreign manufacturers to export to the United States. Also, the higher the import tax, the more of a monopoly American manufacturers (and American trusts) have on home markets. Lower duties increase the customs receipts.

Therefore the present tariff bill promises to increase the cost of necessities to the consumer, increase the profits of such protected monopolies as the sugar, and lumber and implement trusts, and to have many other undesirable effects—without producing sufficient revenue to run the Government.

Three Cases Before Mayor.

There were three cases before Mayor Davis on Wednesday morning, the defendants all being young white men. They were arrested for violating the city ordinance by not using lights on their bicycles, and the two who appeared to the charge were fined $2 and costs each, while the other party forfeited a $5 bond.

TWO MORE "TIGERS" PULLED WEDNESDAY

DEPUTY PINKOSON LANDS ED PARKER AND LYDIA JACKSON.

Information Was Filed Before Grand Jury and Warrants Issued for Their Arrest.

Armed with warrants issued by the grand jury, Deputy Sheriff Chas. Pinkoson Wednesday landed two alleged "tiger" keepers who have been operating in this city for the past several months.

Ed Parker was captured near the Seaboard depot and it was stated that he has done a very extensive business for some time. Besides the evidence that was furnished before the grand jury, other information has been secured since his arrest.

Lydia Jackson, who has been conducting a restaurant on Masonic street for some time, was also arrested on a similar charge, the warrant coming from the grand jury.

There are a number of other suspects and it is thought that the present grand jury will do a great deal towards putting a stop to this practice in Alachua county.

Why the Criminal Weeps.

The central office detective had just sent one of the worst criminals in the city away for a long, long rest.

"Did he give you any trouble?" asked a friend.

"No; he did a good deal of crying, though."

"For some woman, I suppose?"

"Woman? Rather not! They never cry for human beings. This fellow had a wife who had stuck by him through the trial and who before he was caught worked her fingers off for him. Then there were two children. But he never mentioned them. He was crying about his flight—his pigeons, you know. He had about sixty fancy ones, and whenever he thought of what would become of them while he was away tears would spring to his eyes. A lot of the worst crooks and gangsters in the city are fanciers, and a kid couldn't be more sentimental than they are. Sometimes, too, they are sorry for dogs. I knew one who was more anxious about his ferret than anything else. At the same time I never knew a criminal, man or woman, who had a cat among the things they were sorry to leave behind."—New York Press.

Chess Word Wanderers.

An interesting set of word wanderers clusters about the game of chess. "Shah," the Persian word for king, was corrupted in French to "eschec," which has been transferred into English as "check." Our verb and noun check, in most of the common uses, has arisen from the cry of "Check!"—literally "King!" or "Look out for your king!"—which is given when a player puts his opponent's king in danger. When a player has put his opponent's king in such a condition that he cannot be rescued he cries "Checkmate!" a corruption of the Persian "Shah mat!" or "The king is dead!" The chessboard was called in old French an "eschequier." From this word are derived our "checker," both verb and noun; "checkers," the name of another game played on the same kind of board, and "exchequer," so called on account of the checkered cloth on which accounts were formerly calculated.—Minneapolis Journal.

The Blushing Tree.

The blushing tree gets its name from the change of hue it assumes when the rain falls on it. As the drops drench the leaves, gradually but unmistakably the green tint gives way to pink. In a few minutes the green fades from sight. Only in a few half hidden spots beneath broad branches and on its trunk is there a tinge of green to be seen. After an hour or more, when the shower is over, the tree assumes its familiar green once more. Certain tiny insects, and not the tree itself, change color. These peculiar parasites are possessed of the power of chameleons. In the warm sunshine they are greener than the tree on which they live, but when the chilly rain falls upon them they contract their tiny backs and become a pretty pink in tint. Millions of these change the entire appearance of the tree and make it seem to be blushing.

TOMORROW DAY OF GREAT UNION PICNIC

TO BE LARGEST AFFAIR OF KIND EVER GIVEN HERE.

Delightful Short Train Ride to One of the Prettiest Places in the State, Interlachen.

All arrangements having been completed, the children, and not a few of the older folks, are looking forward to Friday with great anticipation.

It is the day selected for the annual union picnic, which is given under the auspices of the Sunday schools of Gainesville, and the fact that an extra train has been spoken for and granted will doubtless make it one of the greatest events of the kind ever given from Gainesville.

Besides the large crowds that will flock to Interlachen from Gainesville, the Palatka people have signified their intention of joining them and together the two cities will probably place three thousand people on the grounds for the day.

By this arrangement a very pleasant short train ride is afforded the children and upon their arrival at Interlachen the place will be "turned over" to them. The fine lakes and handsome shady oaks will afford abundant pleasure and they will return to their homes in the evening a tired but happy crowd.

Arrangements as to benches have been made by the committee and everything will be in readiness except the edibles, which the people will carry with them.

Gainesville Steam Laundry.

We desire to announce to our many patrons and friends that by our arrangement with the Ocala Steam Laundry we will continue to do their work, call for and deliver the same as before. We have a package basket each way every day and will only be at this for a matter of a few weeks, but we ask the indulgence of the kind public until we can enter the new building with new and better material that will enable us to furnish your work from a Gainesville house that will be second to none in this line of business. The General Demand of the Well-Informed of the World has always been for a simple, pleasant and efficient liquid laxative remedy of known value; a laxative which physicians could sanction for family use because its component parts are known to them to be wholesome and truly beneficial in effect, acceptable to the system and gentle, yet prompt, in action.

In supplying that demand with its excellent combination of Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, the California Fig Syrup Co. proceeds along ethical lines and relies on the merits of the laxative for its remarkable success.

That is one of many reasons why Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is given the preference by the Well-Informed. To get its beneficial effects always buy the genuine—manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., only, and for sale by all leading druggists. Price fifty cents per bottle.

Pleasant Dance.

Mrs. Edward Jones tendered a complimentary ball to her neice, Miss Perry, at the Armory Wednesday evening, which was highly enjoyed by the eighteen couple present.

The Armory was decorated for the occasion and delicious punch was served the guests by the Misses Patton during the evening, followed by cream and cake, and altogether an evening was spent that will long be remembered by those present.

The music was furnished by the Gainesville Orchestra.

A Happy Father

Is soon turned to a sad one if he has to walk the floor every night with a crying baby. McGee's Baby Elixir will make the child well—soothe its nerves, induce healthy, normal slumber. Best for disordered bowels and sour stomach—all teething babies need it. Pleasant to take, sure, and safe, contains no harmful drugs. Price 25 and 50 cents per bottle. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

A Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our deepest and lasting gratitude to one and all for the many acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy shown toward us during the sickness and death and burial of our beloved daughter, Pearl, and for the many wreaths and boquets of flowers that covered her entire grave. Many, many, thanks. Buried April 28, 1909, at Antioch. Respectfully and gratefully yours,

A Living Skeleton

Is the final condition of any child that has worms if it lives. Think of having something in your stomach that eats all you take as nourishment. Nine-tenths of the babies have worms—maybe yours has. Be certain that it has not by giving it White's Cream Vermifuge—it expels all worms and is a tonic for the baby. Price 25 cents. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Labor Is Scarce Here.

Common labor is very scarce in Gainesville and it is almost impossible to secure good and efficient workmen. There are a large number of "sporty" negroes lounging around and not a few who do not look sporty, but when they are accosted to work they reply that they do not want to work. The marshal should get busy and investigate some of this class, for quite a few of them surely have no visible means of support.

Boys Will Be Boys

And are always getting scratches, cuts, sprains, bruises, bumps, burns or scalds. Don't neglect such things—they may result seriously if you do. Apply Ballard's Snow Liniment according to directions right away and it will relieve the pain and heal the trouble. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Maple Drop Cakes.

Two cups of maple sirup, one-half cup of cream or milk, two eggs, one-half cup of melted butter, three teaspoonfuls of baking powder, flour enough to make a soft batter. Bake in gem pans.—Good Housekeeping.

Doan's Regulets cure constipation, tone the stomach, stimulate the liver, promote digestion and appetite and easy passages of the bowels. Ask your druggist for them. 25 cents a box.

"THE MOTHER BEAUTIFUL."

(Contributed.)

The "Mother Beautiful" is one who should be so in spirit and in character, in appearance and in speech. To be beautiful in spirit one must be a child of God, for the carnal mind and spirit is not a beautiful one. It is only in proportion as we live near to God and this spirit dwells in us that our spirit shall be transformed into the really beautiful one.

Day by day as we cultivate the sweet, gentle, loving spirit God would have us mothers possess, we shall come to have the beautiful character which will show itself in our daily lives. One of the things we must carefully guard is our thoughts. "If we sow a thought we reap a word; if we sow a word we reap an act; if we sow an act we reap a habit; if we sow a habit we reap a character." The apostle Paul tells us to think on those things which are just, honest, pure, lovely and good.

Next comes beauty of speech, and this is one way in which our character shows itself. How many mothers have thought of the voice as a potent factor, not only in governing their children but in cultivating desirable traits of character? A mother's voice is also educative, since no other tones does a child hear so often as her's or so persistently imitate. It hardly needs to be added how greatly mother's voice makes or mars the happiness of the home. This is an era of nerve predominance. A loud voice excites, annoys and irritates, while a calm tone soothes and wins. Here is a personal work for the home, mothers. It may not be easy at first but a constant watching will produce a habit of quiet tones and the mother will be rewarded.

The woman who would be beautiful, attractive and admired must make the well-worn proverb, "Cleanliness is next to Godliness," her creed. In order to be any of these she must be pure and clean in body. The cleaner the mind the sweeter the woman, the cleaner the soul the more wholesome the woman.

Personal neatness is an obligation to herself and her associates. As much time and thought should be given to the cleanliness of the body inside and out as is devoted to personal adornment.

The mother, above all others, should be fittingly dressed. There are the little children to be silently influenced. There is he husband to be proud of his wife who is just as carefully dressed and dainty as the girl he wooed. Even the mother with small income may be neatly dressed.

I would close with words seen at Yosemite: "Where there is faith there is love; where there is love there is peace; where there is peace there is God; where there is God there is no need." Then we will indeed be "Mothers Beautiful."

HOW TO GROW FAT

A Lazy Stomach the Cause of Thinness Nine Times in Ten.

If you are thin or lean, have scrawney arms and neck, you can't grow fat unless your food properly digests.

People take on flesh in proportion to the nutritious matter which the organs of digestion absorb and pass into the blood.

Just as long as this nutritious matter passes along without being absorbed, just so long will you remain thin.

Perhaps your stomach, bowels and liver need a tonic. If your digestion is not perfect, Mi-o-na tablets will put it right at once.

Mi-o-na will cure indigestion and every conceivable ailment of the stomach promptly. It cures by building and toning up and not by encouraging a tired stomach to continue its shiftless and health destroying habits. It promptly drives away sour stomach, belching of gas, heaviness after eating.

J. W. McCollum & Co. sell for 50 cents a large box, and guarantee it to cure indigestion, sea and car sickness, vomiting of pregnancy and all stomach diseases and distress, or money back.

Mi-o-na is sold by leading druggists everywhere.

HYOMEI

(PRONOUNCED HIGH-O-ME)

Cures catarrh or money back. Just breathe it in. Complete outfit, including inhaler $1. Extra bottles 50c. Druggists.

The Value of Good Digestion

Is easy to figure if you know what your stomach is worth. Kodol keeps the stomach at par value, by insuring good digestion. Kodol cures Dyspepsia.

Kodol insures good digestion by absolutely duplicating Nature's normal process, in perfectly digesting all food taken into the stomach.

While Kodol is doing this, the stomach is resting—and becoming strong and healthy. A strong and healthy stomach guarantees a sound and active brain.

The man with a sound stomach—a stomach that is doing for the body just what Nature intended it to do—is the man who is always prepared for any emergency. He is "there with the goods."

The man with a sick stomach, is a man sick all over. When the stomach is irritated by undigested food, the blood and heart are directly affected. Then dullness, unnatural sleepiness, sick-headaches, vertigo and fainting spells, and even serious brain trouble develop. Kodol will prevent these.

Spurring the stomach and brain to special effort by "tonics" and "stimulants" doesn't cure anything, or accomplish any good. Neither does dieting. Indigestion and the serious ailments which it induces can be averted and corrected only by natural means.

Kodol supplies this natural means. It performs the stomach's work for it—just as the stomach should perform it—while the stomach takes a little rest, "for the stomach's sake."

Our Guarantee

Go to your druggist today and get a dollar bottle. Then after you have used the entire contents of the bottle if you can honestly say, that it has not done you any good, return the bottle to the druggist and he will refund your money without question or delay. We will then pay the druggist for the bottle. Don't hesitate, all druggists know that our guarantee is good. This offer applies to the large bottle only and to but one in a family. The large bottle contains 2½ times as much as the fifty cent bottle.

Kodol is prepared at the laboratories of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago.

THE DAILY SUN, published every morning except Monday, delivered by carrier in the city, or mailed to any part of the United States, postage free, for $5 a year; $2.50 six months; $1.25 three months; or 50 cents for five weeks—strictly in advance.

Reading notices in local column 10 cents a line for first insertion, and 5 cents for each additional insertion.

Rates for display advertising made known on application.

The Twice-a-Week Sun is an eight page, forty-column paper, published every Monday and Thursday, and contains all the news of the week, local, State and general, and will be mailed, postage free, to any part of the United States or Canada, for $1.00 a year—in advance.

All advertising bills become due after first appearance of advertisement, unless otherwise stipulated in contract. Parties not known to us will be required to pay for advertising in advance. Address, THE DAILY SUN, GAINESVILLE, FLA.

Money will talk in Tallahassee Saturday.

The Santa Rosa Record has ceased to exist, The Milton Star having purchased its plant, accounts, etc.

The Legislature has less than a month of the session before it and the Jacksonville charter bill has not been disposed of either.

St. Augustine held its first white primary election for nomination of city officers Tuesday. This plan practically removes the colored voter from a voice in municipal politics.

Tomorrow will bring much joy and happiness to the children of Gainesville, the Sabbath schools having arranged for the annual picnic, which will be held at Interlachen.

The Palatka News is guilty of having made the same mistake The Evening News did at the beginning of the Legislature. It recently placed Syd L. Carter of Gainesville in the anti-prohibition column. Judge Carter is not an anti-prohibitionist.—Pensacola News.

The Fernandina Record was out last week with a special write-up of the Island City, Nassau county and their business interests. Editor Brownsfield is a hustler and his efforts to give Fernandina a live, up-to-date paper seem to be appreciated by her business men.

The April number of The Florida Fruit and Truck Grower contains a lengthy write-up, with a number of illustrations, of Spring Park Stock Farm, located near Gainesville. The enterprise of Manager Callison and those associated with him has done much toward advertising the stock-raising resources of Florida in general and Alachua county in particular.

The Southern Argus, published at Brooksville, says that information has been received from the authorities at Washington that the Government has determined to establish an experiment station in Hernando county and has accepted a tract of land offered by the Brooksville Tobacco Company. Considering the great climatic advantages which Florida possesses over other States it is strange that the National authorities have not taken more interest in enterprises of this character in this State.

Capt. John B. Johnston, who many years ago conducted papers in this city and county, but who has been publishing The Pasco County Democrat at Dade City for the past decade, has sold that paper to Editor Bowden of The Dade City Star and retired to private life. Of Capt. Johnston The Tampa Times says: "The retirement of Capt. J. B. Johnston from newspaper work in Florida is of more than usual interest to the profession and to the public. For many years he has been familiarly known as one of the most eloquent and kindly writers for the press. He has been indulgent to faults and sympathetic with mistakes, generous to enemies and faithful to friends, gentle in his chastisements and unwavering in his advocacies. The personal grief of The Times at his departure from the traditional tripod is mitigated by the fact that when he is well rested he will come back. They all do."

THE FUTURE OF TURKEY.

The near east question, like the poor, seems to be always with us. European powers had no sooner congratulated themselves on the settlement of the Servian difficulty when the reactionary party in Turkey started a revolution which threatened to undo all that was accomplished in the revolution of last July.

But this counter-revolution was short-lived and it is to be hoped that the Young Turks, who are again masters of the situation, may be able to keep what they have gained. Appearances favor them; but, considering the abundance of the fanatical and inflammable material in the Turkish empire one must be prepared to hear of more revolutionary movements and horrible massacres.

As a matter of fact the Turkish empire in Europe is an anomaly altogether out of place. Ever since the Emperor Nicholas of Russia in 1854 dubbed Turkey the "Sick Man of the East" the country has been a fruitful source of trouble and anxiety. For a sick man Turkey has been a long time dying, but in truth its death has been postponed only because of the mutual jealousy of the powers. It ought to suffer, for the slaughter and outrages of which the Armenians and other subject Christian races are the victims prove that the "Unspeakable Turk" continues to be unregenerate.

Of course credit has to be given the Young Turks. We believe they mean well and that if their policy could be sustained all would be well. But the Moslem fanaticism and prejudice taken in connection with the ferocity of the Albanians and Kurds make the task well-nigh impossible. If only the nations could agree as to the disposal of Constantinople the easiest solution of the difficulty would be the extinction of European Turkey as an independent country.

SENATOR BEARD'S BILL.

The bill championed by Senator Beard and passed by the Florida Senate to disfranchise the negro should be killed good and dead in the House, just as it was in the last Legislature. Senator Beard talks well in behalf of sectionalism, race prejudice and trouble. He probably is seeking notoriety—an itching which has ruined many an able man.—St. Petersburg Independent.

Senator Beard proposes an amendment to the State constitution disfranchising the negroes of Florida. That amendment would have to be voted on by both whites and blacks, and the Senator is in the position of asking the negroes to vote to disfranchise themselves, or in other words, to use their franchise to deprive themselves of the franchise.—Miami News-Record.

The passage of the Beard disfranchisement bill by the Florida Legislature would and could possibly do no good. But it would stamp the Florida Legislature as the sublimest and most eminent collection of asses ever bunched. It is hardly within the province of decent discussion to properly characterize such idiocy. It is no wonder the South is held in scarcely disguised contempt when such things are undertaken in all seriousness. The only way to account for the passage of the bill through one chamber is to take it for granted that senatorial courtesy has gone draft under the leadership of an unbalanced mind.—Tampa Times.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address,

STATE FAIR PREMIUMS.

Senator McMullen of Hillsborough has introduced a bill in the Senate for the relief of the premium winners in the last two State Fairs. The bill calls for immediate payment of the $30,000 appropriated by the Legislature of 1907.

Speaking of this matter The Orlando Reporter-Star says:

"Orange county did not figure in the State Fair at Tampa and therefore The Reporter-Star cannot be charged with having an axe to grind in anything it may say favorable to the payment by the State of the premium money due the exhibitors.

"There is no question this is a debt owed to Tampa, to the fair management and to the people interested. The State Legislature authorized the managers of the State Fair to offer premiums to the extent of the sum agreed upon.

"The managers accepted the act which passed the Legislature in good faith, and thereupon held the fair and passed upon the awards.

"The counties and individuals that exhibited and competed did so upon this representation.

"It is unfair to all concerned to delay or quibble over the liquidation of the debt. Let it be paid."

FLORIDA PARAGRAPHERS.

No trouble now for Mr. Roosevelt to break out in a new place. Smallpox is prevailing near his African camp.—Times-Union.

The Tallahassee Sun says there's about $100,000 in the State treasury so there is no danger of Jennings not getting his next fee.—Tampa Tribune.

Jacksonville is about to buy a new crematory despite the wordy protest of certain citizens who declare such extravagance is a burning shame.—Pensacola Journal.

CONTRACT AWARDED FOR PICKETT BUILDING

WILL BE ONLY A ONE-STORY STRUCTURE FOR PRESENT.

Building Will Be Thirty-Five by Sixty-Five and Constructed for Laundry Purposes.

H. A. Pickett has already awarded the contract for the erection of a building on East Main street, S., which is to be built at once.

C. P. Brewer has been awarded the contract and has ordered the brick and sand for the building, which he hopes to commence at a very early date, or as soon as the lot can be cleared of the rubbish from the recent fire and the material placed on the ground.

The building will be only one-story, but will be large and roomy and afford excellent facilities for the purpose for which it is to be built. It will be thirty-five by sixty-five feet in dimensions and will be used by Sherman Weaver for the Gainesville Steam Laundry, to replace the building destroyed by fire on last Sunday morning.

As the building will be erected for a laundry it will therefore be constructed to meet the requirements of such a building. It will have a cement floor, and when completed Mr. Weaver states that he will install all of the very latest machinery that can be purchased, a large part of which has already been ordered.

Dresden a City of Pleasure.

Dresden is essentially a city of pleasure—of fair, wide prospects, of hearty river life, of zest in nature and art. Even the public buildings cluster about the Elbe just as the huts of the first settlers clustered. A circle of Wendish herdsmen's huts on the right bank, a line of fisher shanties on the left—these were the unlikely beginnings of Dresden in the sixth century. But the settlement lay at the only point in the river valley where a ford was practicable, tempting the Germans to settle on the left bank between the Wends and the swamps, or Seen, unlovely places that have long since disappeared, leaving behind only the names Seestrasse, Am See and Seevorstadt. Indeed, the very name of Dresden is derived from the Slavic drezdjan, which means "dwellers in the country forest."—Robert Haven Schauffler in Century.

Women as Well as Men are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers who found Swamp-Root to be just the remedy needed. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

also, and that when he cannot conscientiously do what his constituents conscientiously desire him to do, he ought to be conscientious enough to let them select a representative in harmony with them." He says platform pledges are not only binding, but sacred.

The Oregon plan of electing United States Senators by direct vote of the people is favored, as well as the right of States to regulate railroads and monopolies.

Of the whiskey question, he says:

"I will not discuss the liquor question, because different phases of the subject are presented in different States, and I am not sufficiently well acquainted with the situation in Florida to offer advice. I venture to say, however, that there is a reform which ought to receive the support of all, no matter whether they believe in prohibition or in the regulation of the liquor traffic through the license system. The reform that I speak of is this, that the Federal Government should discontinue the issue of licenses for the sale of liquor in territory where the local authorities have prohibited the sale. No matter whether the prohibition operates over an entire State, a county, or precinct or a city wherever the local authorities decide to prohibit the sale of liquor, their decision ought to be respected by the Federal Government, whereas today the Federal Government stands ready to go into partnership with any person who desires to violate the local law. According to the terms of the partnership the Government is to receive $25 for each license issued, and the one paying the $25 for a license to sell liquor where the local authorities prohibit it takes the chance of getting enough to reimburse him for what he has paid the Government, and to give him a profit besides."

Discussing the guaranty of bank deposits, Mr. Bryan says: "A large part of the bank's prestige is due to the fact that it does business under a charter granted by the Government and is so regulated and inspected as to give the depositors confidence in its solvency, and it is only fair that in return for the advantages which the law confers, the bank should bear the light tax necessary to protect every depositor from possibility of loss. But the guaranty of deposits, by drawing money to the bank, would give the bank an increased earning power in excess of the tax paid."

He closes with a reference to the adoption of the initiative and referendum, adding that they are being adopted by State after State and that they perfect our Government by bringing the Government and the people nearer together.

A GAS LEAK.

After Results That May Come From Hunting It With a Light.

The folly of hunting for a leak in a gas pipe with a lighted match is not so much because of the danger of an explosion as of other damage, as is shown by the experience of a householder not long ago.

One or two small leaks were detected by going over all the pipes and holding a lighted match to them. The smell of gas ceased, but was replaced a few hours later by the smell of burning wood.

Another visit to the cellar showed a charred floor joist a little distance above a gas pipe. There was no apparent cause for this until a very close examination resulted in the finding of a tiny jet of gas which was issuing from the pipe beneath the beam.

It was lighted, but was so small as to be blue in color and nearly invisible. It had been lighted by the match used in the first investigation, but had not been noticed.

"If that leak had happened to be in a lead joint instead of an iron connection," said a gas man, "there would probably have been work for the fire brigade. The smallest possible jet of lighted gas issuing through lead will in time heat and melt the lead and make the leak larger until a big flame is issuing.

"This may make a fire hours later in the dead of night or at a time when no one is in the house. The only proper way to look for these very small leaks is to paint the suspected pipe with a smooth soap lather. Just as in the case of a bicycle tire, the tiniest leak will blow a bubble in the lather and there you are." – London Telegraph.

Notice.

Notice is hereby given that under and by virtue of a final decree of foreclosure rendered by the Judge of the Circuit Court of the Eighth Judicial Circuit of Florida, on April 9th, 1909, wherein Jones, Maynard & Jones are complainants and J. A Thrifty Wife.

A careful, prudent wife is a blessing to a man, especially to a poor man, but some wives are a little too careful. Lord Eldon's wife was somewhat "near," as they say in England. His lordship was very fond of hunting and retired to the country for a few weeks toward the end of the season, where he was in the habit of riding a little Welsh pony, for which he gave 50 shillings. One morning his lordship, intending to enjoy a few hours' sport, ordered Bob to be saddled. Lady Eldon objected, but as company was present gave no reason. In a few moments, however, the servant opened the door and announced that Bob was ready.

"Why, bless me," exclaimed her ladyship, "you can't ride him, Lord Eldon! He has no shoes on."

"Yes, my lady, he was shod this week," said the servant.

"Shameful!" exclaimed her ladyship. "How dare any one have him shod without orders? John," she continued, addressing her husband, "you know you rode the pony only a few times last year, so I had the shoes taken off and have kept them ever since in my bureau. They are as good as new, and these people have shod him again. We shall be ruined at this rate."

First of the Swifts.

Gustavus Franklin Swift, the first of this commercial dynasty, was a Cape Cod Yankee, who bought a steer now and then and peddled the meat from the back of a certain gocart which has since become famous. He moved to Albany and went deeper into meats, discarding one after another partners who had not the foresight and daring which he possessed. He located in Chicago at the beginning of those days of great possibilities in bringing into touch the new west and the older east. It was he who invented the first refrigerator cars. This was the one revolutionary act which put his sons and a few other sons in very fair control of half of the meat of America. He saw the market for dressed beef extended only after the hardest of fights. All great revolutions are fought against. All the rest, all England, all Europe, fought the idea of dressed beef and then accepted it. I doubt if we could do without it now.—Cosmopolitan Magazine.

A Voice From the "Gods."

In a certain theater which makes a specialty of melodrama there is a large following of sailery "gods," and very naturally the "sky" assemblage is composed of knowing critics, who are loud in their demands to be pleased. Woe unto the actor who is unfortunate enough to incur their displeasure!

Recently a play with a hair raising plot was put on the boards. The hero was evidently new to his part, for he fumbled his lines badly and spoke in a faltering tone. Perhaps it was for this reason that he did not meet with the sympathy of the gallery.

Just before the crisis of the play the hero clasped his sweetheart in his arms and said:

"Keep a brave heart, my darling. The worst is yet to come."

Whereupon a voice that had no doubt received its training in crying "Extry!" on the street yelled out:

"What are y' goin' t' do, mister—sing?"—Lorden Tit-Bits.

Woman loves a clear, rosy complexion. Burdock Blood Bitters purifies the blood, clears the skin, restores ruddy, sound health.

Out of Line.

An enlisted man at the post at Fort Leavenworth was ordered to the range for the first time for target drill. Out of twenty-one chances the newcomer made never a hit.

"Oh, you dub!" exclaimed an officer standing near. "You've missed the target every time! What's the matter?"

"Well, sir," answered the recruit nonchalantly, "the only reason I can think of at present is that the person who set up my target hasn't placed it in a straight line from here."

Scant Working Clothes.

In Singapore and Penang may be seen people from almost every part of the globe and representatives of almost every race except our North American Indians. The greater proportion of Malays, East Indians and Cingalese, with their bronze black skins, make the Chinese and Japanese seem almost like white people. Each wears the costume of his native country in so far as he wears anything, but eight out of every ten persons to be seen consider themselves sufficiently well dressed when they have a yard or two of cheesecloth twisted about their loins. This fashion of dress applies to the workmen of all nationalities, whether Malay, African, Indian, Chinese or other. The Indian of the better class, whether Hindoo or Parsee, dresses as he would at home. The Cingalese wears fine rotes and a comb encircling his crown. The Englishman of course has the usual ill fitting clothes and a pith helmet to prevent sunstroke. The tourist, who has taken advice from many sources as to his outfit, helps to make the picture complete.—Denver Post.

Two Bootblacks.

The bootblacks had no regular stand, but each had his box slung over his shoulder and, standing on the curbstone, solicited the passersby to stop and have a shine. Each boy had one "call."

The cry of the first boy was "Shine your boots here!" It announced the simple fact that he was prepared to shine their boots. The cry of the second boy was "Get your Sunday shine!"

It was then Saturday afternoon, and the hour was 4 o'clock. This second boy employed imagination. He related one attraction to another; he joined facts together. His four simple words told all that the first boy said and a great deal more. It conveyed the information not simply that he was there to shine shoes, but that tomorrow was Sunday; that it was likely to be a pleasant day; that he as a bootblack realized they would need an extra good shine.

Was it merely good luck that this boy secured twice the business of the other?—Lorin F. Deland in Atlantic.

Perfectly Correct.

A young minister in the course of an eloquent sermon on the pomps and vanities of the world staggered his congregation by exclaiming:

"Here am I standing, preaching to you with only half a shirt on my back, while you sit there covered with gewgaws and other baubles."

The next day a parcel containing several brand new shirts was left at his house by one of his hearers, a kind hearted old lady. Meeting the donor a few days afterward, he thanked her exceedingly, but expressed much surprise at receiving such an unexpected gift.

"Oh," said the lady, "you mentioned in your sermon on Sunday that you had only half a shirt on your back."

"Quite true," added his reverence, "but you seem to forget that the other half was in front."—London Answers.

How to Prove Coins.

The lady behind the counter at one of the London stores wrote out the bill for my purchases on a little manifolding book, which reproduced her writing by means of a carbon paper on the page below. Then she took the half sovereign I tendered in payment and, placing it on the upper page, pressed it hard down with her thumb. I asked the reason. "We have instructions," she explained, "to take the impression of any coin received by means of the carbon paper in the book. See (turning to the duplicate of my bill) there's the impression of your half sovereign. You couldn't very well think you'd given me a sovereign after seeing that, could you? You'd be surprised," she said, "how often we have to show our books to people to convince them we've not made a mistake."—Manchester Guardian.

S.S.S. MAKES A LASTING CURE

Not only its proven ability to cure, but its absolute safety as a remedy, has made S. S. S. the most extensively used of all medicines in the treatment of Contagious Blood Poison. Unlike the strong mineral mixtures, which temporarily remove the outward symptoms and shut the disease up in the system, there to carry on its destructive work on the delicate and vital organs, S. S. S. strikes directly at the root, and by purifying the blood of every trace of the virus, completely and permanently cures the trouble. S. S. S. is Nature's blood purifier, harmless in its action and certain in its good results. It is made from a combination of roots and herbs, each of which has a definite and specific action in purifying the blood. Years were spent in selecting and proportioning the different ingredients, but when S. S. S. was perfected it soon demonstrated its superiority over all other blood medicines, and now, after 40 years, it is still the one and only certain cure for Contagious Blood Poison. While driving out the poison from the circulation S. S. S. builds up and strengthens the system by its fine vegetable tonic effects. If you are suffering with Contagious Blood Poison S. S. S. is your most certain reliance, and because of its freedom from mercury, potash or any other mineral, it is absolutely safe for every one. ABOUT ADVERTISING—NO. 7

The Cannon That Modernized Japan

By Herbert Kaufman.

Business is no longer a man to man contact, in which the merchant and the patron establish a personal bond, any more than battle is a hand-to-hand grapple, where bone and muscle and sinew decide the outcome. Trade as well as war has changed in its aspect—both are now fought at long range.

Just as a present day army of heroes would have no opportunity to display the individual valor of its members, just so a merchant who counts upon his personal acquaintanceship for success is a relic of the past—a business dodo.

Japan changed her policy of exclusion to foreigners after a fleet of warships battered down the Satsuma fortifications. The Samurai, who had hitherto considered their blades and bows good enough, discovered that one cannon was mightier than all the swords in creation if they could not get near enough to use them. Japan profited by the lesson. She did not wait until further ramparts were battered to pieces, but was satisfied with her one experience and proceeded to modernize her methods.

The merchant who doesn't advertise is pretty much in the same position as that in which Japan stood when her eyes were opened to the fact that times had changed. The long range publicity of a competitor will as surely destroy your business as the cannon of the foreigners crumbled the walls of Satsuma. Unless you take the lesson to heart, unless you realize the importance of advertising, not only as the means of extending your business but for defending it as well, you must be prepared to face the consequences of a folly as great as that of a duelist who expects to survive in a contest in which his adversary bears a sword twice the length of his own.

Don't think that it's too late to begin because there are so many stores which have had the advantage of years of cumulative advertising. The city is growing. It will grow even more next year. It needs increased trading facilities just as it's hungry for new neighborhoods.

But it will never again support neighborhood stores. Newspaper advertising has eliminated the strength of being locally prominent, and five cent street car fares have cut out the advantage of being "around the corner." A store five miles away can reach out through the columns of the daily newspaper and draw your next door neighbor to its aisles, while you sit by and see the people on your own block enticed away without your being able to retaliate or supply new customers to take their place.

It is not a question of your ability to stand the cost of advertising but of being able to survive without it. The thing you have to consider is not only an extension of your business but holding what you already have.

Advertising is an investment, the cost of which is in the same proportion to its returns as seeds are to the harvest. And it is just as preposterous for you to consider publicity as an expense as it would be for a farmer to hesitate over purchasing a fertilizer if he discovered that he could profitably increase his crops by employing it.

Article 3—Capital Stock. The amount of the capital stock of this corporation shall be $5,000 (with the privilege of increasing same in the manner provided by the laws of the State of Florida to $10,000), divided into fifty shares of the par value of $100.00 each, all of which capital stock shall be payable in cash.

Article 4—The term for which this corporation shall exist is ninety-nine years.

Article 5—The business of this corporation shall be conducted by a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary and Treasurer, a General Manager; provided that any two of the foregoing offices, except the office of President may be held by one and the same stockholder; and a Board of Directors, which shall consist of not less than three nor more than five members, to be elected at the annual meeting of stockholders, to be held on the first Tuesday in January of each year. The Board of Directors shall appoint such other officers of this corporation, having such powers, duties and terms of office as may be provided by the by-laws. The following officers shall conduct the business of this corporation until those elected at the first annual meeting shall qualify: President, W. E. Laughinghouse; General Manager, E. L. Hulme; Secretary and Treasurer, J. E. Martin; Directors, E. L. Hulme, W. E. Laughinghouse, J. E. Martin.

Article 6—Indebtedness—The highest amount of indebtedness to which this corporation shall at any time subject itself is $5,000.00.

Article 7—By-Laws—This corporation may adopt by-laws for the government of its affairs, not inconsistent with the articles of incorporation or the laws of the State of Florida. The said by-laws may be amended from time to time as may be provided in said by-laws.

Article 8—Subscribers—The name and place of residence of the subscribers, together with the amount of capital stock subscribed by each, is:

W. E. Laughinghouse, Hawthorne, 15 shares.
E. L. Hulme, Hawthorne, 25 shares.
J. E. Martin, Hawthorne, 5 shares.
C. F. Morrison, Hawthorne, 1 share.
J. W. Peacock, Hawthorne, 2 shares.
G. W. Peacock, Hawthorne, 2 shares.

State of Florida,
Alachua County.

On this 17th day of April, A. D. 1909, before me personally came E. L. Hulme, W. E. Laughinghouse, J. E. Martin, C. F. Morrison, J. W. Peacock, George W. Peacock, to me well-known to be the individuals who signed the proposed Articles of Incorporation of the Hawthorne Trading Company, who severally acknowledged before me that he signed the said proposed Articles of Incorporation freely and voluntarily, and for the uses and purposes therein set forth and expressed.

Witness my hand and official seal, this 17th day of April, A. D. 1909.

THOMAS J. HAMMOND,
Notary Public, State of Florida.
(Seal). My commission expires September 10, 1911.

Tennis Tournament.

The tennis tournament for the championship in singles at the University started yesterday afternoon at 2:30 on the University courts.

As a result of the afternoon's playing, three matches were played.

Wilson, R. N., defeated Wilson, F. T., 6-1, 6-3, 6-3.

Rader defeated Price, 6-4, 6-4.

Drawdy defeated Drane, 6-2, 8-6.

Three matches will be played each afternoon until the winner is decided among the ten contestants.

Messrs. Colee & Son, the enterprising jewelers, have offered a beautiful loving cup to the winner, which is now on exhibition in their show window.

The "Old Hoss" Sale.

The Southern Express Company have arranged for another of their "old hoss" sales, which will be conducted from the vacant Wilson store, on East Liberty street, commencing this morning at 9:30 o'clock. This is the third time such a sale has been conducted in this city, and there are always a number of bargains secured. The company will adopt a new rule at this sale, however, and deliver the purchaser the package as they buy them and it is almost certain that the solid carload of unclaimed freight will be disposed of by this afternoon.

Death of Infant.

News was received in Gainesville yesterday of the death of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. DeLand of Williston. The litle one had been a sufferer for the past few weeks and everything possible was done to save its life. The funeral was held at that place and their large number of friends extend condolence to the heart-broken parents.

Miss Ella Waits of Hawthorn, who has been spending the past several days visiting her sister, Mrs. R. L. Barton, Rocky Point, was in the city yesterday en route to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Summers of High Springs arrived in the city yesterday and will spend the remainder of the week here. The former has been summoned here as a witness before circuit court.

Do not forget the "Old Hoss" Sale held by the Southern Express Company, which takes place today, commencing at 9:30 o'clock a. m., at the store room formerly occupied by the Wilson dry goods store.

S. P. Thomas of High Springs was among the visitors to the city yesterday. He is among the efficient deputies of Sheriff Ramsey and was here looking after some business matters pertaining to that office.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Shouse of Wilcox are among the visitors to the city. The former was for a number of years a resident of High Springs but recently moved to Wilcox and engaged in the hotel business.

SPRING TERM OF CIRCUIT COURT NOW IN SESSION

Grand Jury Down to Work---Bexley-Osteen Case Set for Thursday---Other Court Matters.

From Tuesday's Daily Sun:

The regular spring term of Circuit Court, Eighth Judicial Circuit, in and for Alachua county, convened at 10 o'clock Monday morning, His Honor Judge J. T. Wills presiding, with State's Attorney J. M. Rivers, Clerk S. H. Wienges, Sheriff P. G. Ramsey and other court officials in their respective positions.

At the opening of the court Sheriff Ramsey made the return of the following venire:

John Parker, A. B. Oliver, A. A. Burke, A. F. Torley, E. C. Pearson, John Ford, Moses Edelstein, J. L. Strickland, J. M. Heidt, C. C. Rountree, J. T. Beard, J. L. Feagle, Wallace Mathews, H. M. Chitty, J. F. DeSha, Thad C. Bryant, C. W. Gilbert, W. O. Terrell, W. H. Gay, A. W. Lewis, W. E. Bell, C. M. Beach, Geo. S. Merchant, A. M. Ellis, T. J. Ham, H. W. Denham, E. Jeffords, P. T. Stock, S. R. Clark.

For various reasons Messrs. Oliver, Pearson, Heidt, Gilbert, Lewis, Bell, Beach, Denham and Stock were excused.

Whereupon the following grand jury was drawn: J. L. Strickland, Wallace Mathews, T. J. Ham, Geo. S. Merchant, J. L. Feagle, A. F. Torley, W. O. Terrell, J. F. DeSha, A. A. Burke, John Ford, C. C. Rountree, S. R. Clark, J. T. Beard, Thad C. Bryant, A. M. Ellis, H. M. Chitty, Moses Edelstein, W. H. Gay.

Joseph Shannon was sworn in as bailiff to the grand jury, and the jury retired and selected as foreman George S. Merchant, and J. T. Beard secretary.

After receiving the charge of the court, which was a very specific one, to which the closest attention was paid, the grand jury retired to their room on the first floor and immediately got down to business. The jury is composed of a most intelligent body as an aggregation, and the manner in which they went to work is evidence that they mean business.

After sounding the civil docket, and the hearing of an application for injunction in the case of John G. White vs. Richard McConathy et al., involving certain lands, in which injunction was denied, the court took a recess until 2 p. m.

In the above hearing Judge Horatio Davis appeared for the complainant, while Attorneys Anderson and H. M. Hampton represented the defense.

Afternoon Session.

Court reconvened at 2 p. m., all officials in their respective places.

Truby Osteen and Wm. A. Bexley, the young white men charged with the murder of W. H. Moreland at High Springs, and who have been in jail for the past few months, were brought into court. They were clean shaven, neatly dressed, each wearing a buttonette of pansies, and appeared cheerful. They were cordially greeted by friends who had congregated to see them and seemed in the best of spirits.

The State was represented by State Attorney J. M. Rivers, while Attorneys J. N. Stripling, B. A. Thrasher and W. S. Broome appeared for the defendants.

Attorney Rivers called the roll of State witnesses. All were present, and the State announced ready for trial.

Attorney Stripling called roll of witnesses for defense, a number of whom failed to respond as their names were called.

Attorney Stripling announced ready, requesting the court to draw jury from box, Sheriff to make return Thursday morning.

Attorney Stripling, who is also one of the attorneys representing the defendants, announced that it was the desire of counsel for defense to try the case of the State vs. D. M. Davidson and J. M. Kelley, charged with the murder of Night Watchman W. C. Sellers, at the present term of the court, and to save delay and the probable neccessity of having cause to issue a special venire for this case, requested that jurors drawn from the box also be used as a venire in this case, said jurors to be excused until May 10th.

There were left seventy-one names of the regular venire in the box.

The clerk was instructed to issue to the sheriff a special venire of eleven from the body of the county to complete the regular panel, returnable Thursday morning. E. Jeffords being the only petit juror retained from the regular panel.

Witnesses for State in the Bexley-Osteen case were excused until Thursday morning at 9 o'clock, while witnesses for defense were requested to report Wednesday.

After hearing a few bills of complaints and cases of minor importance, the court adjourned until 9 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Grand Jury Reports.

During the afternoon the grand jury came into open court and presented "no bill" State vs. Bob Dixon, malpractice in office; State vs. Willie Pugh, murder; State vs. Anthony Polite, slander; State vs. Anthony Polite, Jr., slander, and one true bill for murder.

TUESDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

From Wednesday's Daily:

The second day of the spring term of the Circuit Court for Alachua county convened at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning, His Honor Judge J. T. Wills presiding.

Just at the convening of the court Wm. A. Bexley and Truby Osteen, charged with murder of W. H. Moreland, and D. M. Davidson and J. M. Kelley, who must face the charge of murder in the case of W. C. Sellars, were brought into court by a deputy, and took position on the prisoners' bench at the eastern section of the bar rail. The defendants were greeted by a number of friends upon entering, and seemed in a most cheerful mood.

Mrs. Emma Edmondson, daughter of Mr. Davidson, was present in the court room, and, advancing to her father, who was seated, greeted him affectionately, placing her arm about his waist, where she remained for several moments in conversation. The scene was rather impressive to those who witnessed it, as the devotion between the two was plainly evident. After a few moments Mrs. Edmondson bade her father good-bye and left the court room, assuring him of her sincerest loyalty, and promising to return in a short while. Mrs. Edmondson is an attractive little woman, and, attired in a neat costume of solid black, made a pretty picture as she fondly greeted her father.

Accompanying the white prisoners was Jim London, a young mullato, against whom the grand jury returned an indictment of murder in the first degree on Monday afternoon

TWO MORE "TIGERS" PULLED WEDNESDAY

DEPUTY PINKOSON LANDS ED PARKER AND LYDIA JACKSON.

Information Was Filed Before Grand Jury and Warrants Issued for Their Arrest.

Armed with warrants issued by the grand jury, Deputy Sheriff Chas. Pinkoson Wednesday landed two alleged "tiger" keepers who have been operating in this city for the past several months.

Ed Parker was captured near the Seaboard depot and it was stated that he has done a very extensive business for some time. Besides the evidence that was furnished before the grand jury, other information has been secured since his arrest.

Lydia Jackson, who has been conducting a restaurant on Masonic street for some time, was also arrested on a similar charge, the warrant coming from the grand jury.

There are a number of other suspects and it is thought that the present grand jury will do a great deal towards putting a stop to this practice in Alachua county.

WAILES CLAIM WILL NOT GO BEFORE COURT

Senate Kills the Harris Bill Which Sought That End. Bill for Electric Chair Introduced.

TALLAHASSEE, May 5.—After a long debate the Senate yesterday killed the Harris bill which was intended to enable the Wailes claim to be brought against the State through the courts. The vote to indefinitely postpone the measure stood 14 to 12.

Senator Harris spoke for over an hour and eloquently argued for the rights of Col. Wailes and for the passage of the bill in order that suit might be brought against the State before a jury in a State court.

Several amendments were offered, but were turned down.

Senator Johnson opposed the measure, though he held that the State should pay any rightful claim if brought before the Legislature.

The chief arguments against the measure were that it was unconstitutional and also that it was in the nature of class legislation.

Some who voted to indefinitely postpone it explained their votes, saying they would be glad to vote for the claim of Col. Wailes if it could be proven right before the Senate, but they opposed the enabling bill.

"Gentlemen," said Senator Harris, "the injustice the State has done Col. Wailes partakes much of the same injustice that was done the State by the Federal Government for fifty years."

Senator Johnson believed that the parties are not entitled to over $89,299.65, the percentage on the amount actually collected.

Senator Cone said many poor people with small claims should not be shut out if one with a large claim is to be allowed the claim.

"It would be a disgrace to allow one man with a large claim to sue the State, but to shut out the small ones though their claims be fully as just. I believe in special privileges for none."

Senator Cone offered an amendment proposing that no fixed amount should be set in the enabling act.

Senator Buckman spoke at length in behalf of the bill. He held that to let the bars down entirely would result in the courts being clogged with trumped-up claims against the State.

Senator McLeod spoke in favor of the amendment, claiming that the bill as it stood is little short of class legislation.

Senator Williams opposed the measure.

Senator Miller opposed the passage of the bill as it stood, though he did not object to the payment by the State of any just claim. He held that the bill would result in many big lawyer fees.

Senator Crill reviewed some of the old history of the case, and in behalf of the claim.

Senator Broome said he believed the claim to be a just claim, but feared the proposed measure would be unconstitutional.

On a division, the Senate voted 12 to 12 on the Cone amendment to the amendment, and Mr. Hudson voted no. Lost.

On the original amendment, the vote stood 14 to 13.

Senator Leggett moved indefinite postponement. Adopted, 14 to 12.

One of the most important measures introduced in the Senate was that by Senator Williams, prohibiting sale of liquor between 6 o'clock in the evening and 6 o'clock in the morning.

A bill by Senator Hasford creates a State forestry commission and is intended to conserve the forest resources of the State.

The House.

All legal executions in this State will take place in the Duval county jail via the electric chair, if a bill introduced by Representative McKenzie of Putnam in the House yesterday is adopted. The bill provides that the electric chair shall replace the gallows for legal executions and appropriates $1,000 for the equipment of such a chair in the Duval county jail, where all receiving the death sentence will be taken to be executed.

Representative Taylor of Hillsborough introduced a bill for the payment of the Tampa State Fair certificates.

The afternoon session was taken up with bills of minor importance, though the Neeley bill creating the office of pardon attorney was discussed at some length, but was finally left over until Wednesday.

Thornton Called Alexander Liar; Fight Was Result

TALLAHASSEE, May 3.—The usual Sunday quiet of the Leon lobbies was broken yesterday afternoon when Hon. James E. Alexander and Hon. Macon Thornton, the two Representatives from Volusia county, engaged in a fistic encounter.

Mr. Alexander was standing in the lobby of the hotel talking to a friend when Mr. Thornton entered and in a most acrid manner demanded of Mr. Alexander if he had made a statement that he (Alexander) had written the platform upon which he (Thornton) ran.

"I understand that you made the statement that you wrote the platform upon which I made my race for the Legislature," remarked Mr. Thornton.

Those in the lobby of the hotel who heard the remark thought that the gentleman from Volusia was addressing his colleague jokingly.

"I think it was written in my office," returned Mr. Alexander.

"You are a d—— liar."

Instantaneously the two came to blows, but were quickly separated by friends.

The two members of the House from Volusia have stood together on practically every issue since the opening of the session.

Mr. Alexander declared last night, however, that they had arrived at the parting of the ways, differences having arisen over a local measure. Mr. Alexander said he favored a free bridge from Daytona to Daytona Beach, while his colleague had taken a different view.

Mr. Thornton called up the writer over the telephone and stated that his colleague, Mr. Alexander, had made certain statements which were not true and which tended not only to discredit him, but to blemish his record as a legislator.

The affair is regretted by the friends of both.

William Jennings Bryan Writes Florida Legislature

TALLAHASSEE, May 5.—A lengthy letter from Hon. William Jennings Bryan was sent to the Legislature yesterday by Governor Gilchrist. In submitting the missive the Governor said:

"Gentlemen of the Legislature—I herewith enclose to you for your consideration copies of a communication received by me from Hon. William Jennings Bryan.

"In a letter to me he states that, owing to previous engagements, it will be impossible for him to arrive at Tallahassee before the 4th or 5th of June, being about the time of the adjournment of the Legislature. He further states:

"'I think, therefore, that I ought to send a letter to be read to the Legislature rather than attempt to make a visit to your State this spring.

"'I appreciate very much the honor done me by the Legislature and by yourself, and if I had received the invitation earlier I would have so made my plans as to have accepted.

"'I will enclose a letter which I will ask you to deliver to the Legislature.'

"I have the honor to be very respectfully,

"ALBERT W. GILCHRIST,
"Governor."

After expressing his regrets upon being unable to visit Tallahassee before the close of the legislative session, Mr. Bryan explained his views on a number of subjects, some of which are considered issues before the present Legislature. Speaking of Conscience vs. Constituents, Mr. Bryan says that it is sometimes argued that a representative should obey his conscience rather than his constituents. "My answer is that he must recognize that his constituents have conscience

REV. ROGERS RESIGNS CHURCH PASTORATE

ASSUMES OFFICE OF SECRETARY OF STATE BOARD MISSIONS.

Will Continue His Residence in Gainesville and Fill Pulpit the Remainder of This Month.

Sunday night's services at the First Baptist church were attended with a degree of deep sadness that not only affects those of the Baptist church here, but the entire city, for at the close of the service and after a successful pastorate covering a number of years, Rev. S. B. Rogers tendered his resignation.

His action in this matter was made necessary on account of his election to fill the unexpired term of the late Rev. L. D. Geiger as secretary of the State Board of Missions of Florida. The resignation did not come as a surprise altogether as it was learned several days ago that he had been elected to succeed Rev. Geiger, but it is considered a misfortune to the church and the city at large to lose such a faithful, earnest and tireless worker. Under his guidance the church has grown and prospered and it is with the most profound regret that his people accept his decision.

As a preacher of the gospel he has few equals and as a Christian no superiors. Much of his time was given to charitable work and many times since his coming to Gainesville through his kind attention and helpful ministrations the needy and depressed have been made to feel that life is worth the battle and that all is not vanity and selfishness. His pulpit will be hard to fill and his place as a citizen still more difficult. He will endeavor to conduct the services for the remainder of the month at the church on Sundays.

It is a pleasure to know, however, that the new position will not require the removal of his estimable family from this city for some time, and it is further hoped that arrangements will be made whereby his permanent home will be located in Gainesville.

Following is a copy of the resignation as read to the church at the meeting on Sunday evening:

"To the First Baptist Church, Gainesville, Fla.: My Dear People—Whereas, in the providence of God, our very worthy secretary and treasurer of the Florida Baptist State Board of Missions, Rev. L. D. Geiger, has been called from his labors on earth to his reward in heaven, and,

"Whereas, The State Board of Missions, after a careful and prayerful survey of the field, have decided in their good judgment that it is conducive to the best interests of Florida Baptists for me to take up the work, and

"Whereas, in their meeting for the express purpose of selecting his successor, they have unanimously chosen your pastor to fill his unexpired term, therefore it seems to be the leading of the divine hand that I should accede to the request of our board, it becomes my painful but imperative duty to tender you my resignation as pastor, which I trust you will accept in the same loving and fraternal spirit in which it is tendered.

"Assuring you that my relationship with you has ever been pleasant and happy, that I deeply and fully appreciate every act of courtesy and kindness shown either to me or my family, and that though we part as pastor and people, I shall love you none the less. Your troubles shall be my sorrows, your successes and joys my pleasures.

"Ever praying God's richest blessings upon you in all your work,

"Very truly yours,

"S. B. ROGERS.

THE NEWS FROM MELROSE.

Bill Passed by Legislature Defines Limits of the Municipality.

MELROSE, Fla., May 3.—The following act was recently passed by the Florida Legislature and the full text may be of interest to some of our citizens:

"A Bill to be entitled an Act defining the boundary line between the counties of Clay and Putnam in the corporation limits of the town of Melrose.

"Section 1. Be it enacted by the Legislature of Florida: That the boundary line between the counties of Clay and Putnam counties, in the corporate limits of the town of Melrose, shall be the north edge of the Bellamy avenue beginning at the intersection of the said Bellamy avenue and the range line dividing range twenty-two and twenty-three, thence running east along the north edge of Bellamy avenue one-half mile to its intersection with the Bellamy or Federal road leading from St. Augustine to Tallahassee.

"Sec. 2. All laws in conflict with this are hereby repealed."

The Waldo baseball team failed to arrive on Friday afternoon, much to the disappointment of our team.

The dangerous and unsightly barb-wire fence on the Nichols & Baldwin lot, on Bellamy avenue, has finally been replaced by a real woven-wire fence.

The many friends of Hartridge Lee extend congratulations on his graduating a full-fledged D. D. S. from the Atlanta Dental College. He is expected to arrive home today. Cale Yearwood and Dr. Wills are other arrivals from Atlanta.

H. L. Mooty of Gainesville, representing the East Florida Telephone Co., is in town to supervise the stringing of the wire from Campville to this place. He hopes to have the line open for service by tomorrow.

Dr. Frank McRae and H. von Noszky represented Melrose Lodge No. 89 at the dedication of the Masonic Temple at Gainesville. They report having had a most happy time, meeting many old friends and enjoying the hospitable reception extended to them by their Gainesville brethren. At the recent meeting of the Melrose Lodge Dr. McRae, W. M., gave a glowing description of the beautiful building and its furnishings.

C. P. Huffman left Saturday for Live Oak and Lake City.

OLIVER CATO KILLED BY ANOTHER NEGRO

TRAGEDY OCCURRED SUNDAY AFTERNOON OVER CATOS.

Two Negroes Arrested Charged With the Murder and Brought Here and Placed in Jail.

From Tuesday's Daily Sun:

Oliver Cato, a negro, was killed about two miles north of Alachua Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock and Henry Richard and Cyrus Perkins, colored, have been arrested charged with the crime.

After learning of the occurrence Deputy Marcloony at once visited the scene and the above negroes gave themselves up, claiming that they did the deed in self defense.

From what could be learned, it is understood that the three, together with others, were engaged in a "skin" game and being more or less under the influence of bad booze, the trouble was very easily started over the game.

The weapon used was a single-barrel shotgun and only one load was required to perform the act. The negroes at once gave themselves up to the deputy and were brought here and placed in jail to await the action of the grand jury.

HAIGLER—ELLIS.

Marriage of Popular Young Couple in Gainesville Monday Morning.

At the home of the bride's parents on Monday morning, Mr. John Furman Haigler of Leesburg and Miss Annie Ellis, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. R. Ellis, were happily married, Rev. T. P. Hay of the First Presbyterian church performing the ceremony.

The affair had been kept rather a secret by the contracting parties and only a very small number of friends were present besides the immediate family to witness the ceremony. The parlor had been beautifully decorated with flowers, ferns and plants of all descriptions, the room being darkened and the lights shaded the surroundings to present an evening effect.

Miss Ellis has been reared in this city and is an accomplished young lady. She was beautifully attired in a traveling suit of brown, with hat to match, while the groom wore the conventional black.

Mr. Haigler is a young man of pleasing appearance and at one time was engaged in business in this city, but later sold his interests and removed to Leesburg, where he purchased a handsome orange grove and truck farm.

The happy pair left immediately after the ceremony for Cameron, S. C., in which city they will spend the next few months among the relatives of the groom, afterwards returning to their winter home at Leesburg.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address,

MORE BUILDINGS ARE ASSURED UNIVERSITY

INDICATIONS ARE THAT WORK WILL SOON COMMENCE.

Sufficient Sum Is Said to Be Available for the Erection of Large Buildings.

From Tuesday's Daily Sun:

Developments during the past few days now make it almost certain that work will commence within a short while at the University.

It is stated on good authority that the money for part of the buildings is now available and that the Legislature will probably make some provision for future needs.

The first building to be constructed will be to the east of the two dormitories already constructed and this will cost in the neighborhood of $150,000.

With both this and the Government building in course of erection Gainesville will be a very busy city this summer, for a large number of citizens will also nave new homes erected.

IN MEMORIAM.

One of the saddest deaths to occur in the LaCrosse community for many a day was the death of Miss Pearl Cox, which occurred at the home of her father on the evening of 27th of April, after an illness of more than nine weeks, of typhoid fever. Beautiful in her character, she was beautiful in her death. From early childhood she had the happy faculty of smiling every shadow away. If sorrow ever came into her fair young life it was hidden behind a smile. She was a perfect ray of sunlight wherever she went. She radiated cheerfulness among every company. Always a smile upon her face, her cheerful heart was to everyone a bow in the clouds of their sorrows.

She was a diligent and faithful Sunday school pupil from childhood. To know her was to love her.

How sad that her young and happy life should so soon go out, and that the bright and cheerful path of her lovely young womanhood should so suddenly end. Long will the memory of her bright and happy face linger in the memory of those who knew and loved her.

She had just come into the full flush of beautiful womanhood when overtaken by the deadly malady. She did not have the strength to combat and finally yielded her spirit into the hands of Him who loves and cares for us all.

She was buried from Antioch Baptist church on the 28th by Rev. S. P. Rogers of Gainesville and laid to rest in the church cemetery by gentle hands, amid throngs of grief-stricken friends and showers of tears. The many beautiful flowers upon her casket and grave spoke tenderly of the boundless love that wefted for her untimely death.

We commend her grief-stricken family to Him whom she loved, and Who can comfort their broken hearts.

For love has put off in the land of its birth
The stains it had gathered in this,
And hope, the sweet singer that gladdened the earth,
Lies asleep on the bottom of bliss.

I know she has gone where her forehead is starr'd,
With the beauty that dwelt in her soul,
Where the light of her smiles cannot be marr'd
Nor the heart flung back from its goal.

I know she has drunk from the lethe that flows
Through the land where they do not forget,
That sheds over memory only repose,
And takes from it only regrets.

A FRIEND.

Truth and Quality

appeal to the Well-Informed in every walk of life and are essential to permanent success and creditable standing. Accordingly, it is not claimed that Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is the only remedy of known value, but one of many reasons why it is the best of personal and family laxatives is the fact that it cleanses, sweetens and relieves the internal organs on which it acts without any debilitating after effects and without having to increase the quantity from time to time.

It acts pleasantly and naturally and truly as a laxative, and its component parts are known to and approved by physicians, as it is free from all objectionable substances. WEAVER'S LAUNDRY ALMOST TOTAL LOSS

WILL BE REPLACED AT THE EARLIEST POSSIBLE TIME.

Sherman Weaver Places Loss at About $3,500, With Only One Thousand Insurance.

The loss by fire of the Gainesville Steam Laundry at an early hour Sunday morning proved to be a serious one, the owner Sherman Weaver, stating that it would reach fully $3,500, with only a small insurance of $1,000.

Nothing definite is known as to how the building became ignited, but it is the general belief that it was the work of incendaries, judging from the manner in which it was burned. At the time the fire department was called out the building was a complete mass of flames and the high class of work performed by the men was something remarkable, for the entire shell of the building was saved. This will have to be torn down, however, as it cannot be repaired, the building now being within the fire limits and will have to be replaced with brick.

Mr. Weaver has made all necessary arrangements to continue his business and at once wired the Ocala Steam Laundry of his condition and asked that they get out his work for him, which was agreed to, and he states that his patrons will not be inconvenienced in any way.

He also states that he will at once commence arrangements for another building and will order the necessary machinery to begin operations within the next sixty days.

The entire machinery on the interior of the building is a total loss and can only be used for scrap-iron, about the only part of the entire plant that can be used again being the boiler, which is practically uninjured.

There had been no fire in the building of about the place since shortly before noon on Saturday, and this is stronger evidence to those interested that the building was set on fire.

LETTER TO W. F. CELLON,

Gainesville, Florida.

Dear Sir: The paint question boiled down is simply this:

The paint that takes least gallons, wears longest; always.

Here's an instance:

E. O. Perry, East 8th street, Erie, Pa., painted two houses, same size; one Devoe, the other with another paint at same price; took 3 gallons Devoe to 4 of the other; and in 3 years Devoe was the better looking job.

Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOE & CO.

NEW TRAIN SERVICE INAUGURATED MONDAY

CONDUCTOR FREDERICK IS IN CHARGE OF NEW TRAIN.

Travel for the First Day Proved Very Satisfactory—The Time Will Be Gradually Shortened.

The new train service over the Atlantic Coast Line was made effective Monday morning and judging from the number of passengers on the initial trip it will eventually prove a very popular service for this system.

The trains, which are known as Nos. 9 and 10, are in charge of Conductor R. T. Frederick and Engineer "Bill" Hunt, both of the service which has been operated between Wilcox and Jacksonville daily for the past several months and the former in charge of the Newberry run practically ever since its inauguration.

Conductor Frederick is one of the most popular bell-cord "yankers" in this section of the State and will prove a drawing card for the new service. Many of his old-time drummer friends will learn with pleasure that he has been placed in charge of the run.

There has been much favorable comment upon the new service, and there seems only one draw-back, which will be remedied on the 16th. That is the matter of time required to make the schedule.

Superintendent McArthur of this division made the initial trip to Jacksonville with the train and it is his intention to urge a change in the schedule which will shorten the time one hour or more and make it a regular "business man's special."

Later in the season a special effort will be made to have this service include Sunday, which will give the people along the line an opportunity to visit Worthington Springs and spend the day. As the weather becomes warmer it would be the means of carrying a large number of pleasure-seekers to the springs on Sunday.

HIGH SPRINGS NOTES.

HIGH SPRINGS, May 3.—Mr. R. A. Kelly died here Friday from the effects of galloping consumption. He leaves a wife and four children to mourn his loss. The deceased was a Woodman and his funeral was conducted under the auspices of that order Saturday.

A negro boy of 17 or 18 years of age accidentally shot himself in the neck last Sunday, while shooting alligators in the river, from the effects of which he died.

A piano contest has been organized in High Springs by the Bush & Safford Piano Company and the merchants of the place. It is expected to stimulate trade.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Roberson have moved to Valdosta. Their many friends here regret their departure.

The New Century Club held its last meeting of the season in the auditorium Friday and adjourned till the first week in October.

Miss Minnie Cole of Waycross is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. McL. Grady, at present, and is adding very much pleasure to her friends and society in general.

The party which attended the opening ball at Worthington Springs report a very pleasant occasion.

The Ladies Are Grateful.

Senator McCreary, Hons. Syd L. Carter and T. A. Doke: Dear Sirs—We, the members of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Archer, beg to extend to you our heartfelt thanks and deep appreciation of the noble work in the glorious victory that was gained in the Senate and House of Representatives last week. It was certainly grand news to all mothers, wives and sisters all over the State, and we all appreciate the grand and noble work, and we again thank you, each one, for your grand stand in the act.

Senator Duncan U. Fletcher spoke in advocacy of the retention of the tax on lumber now provided by the Dingley bill, on long staple cotton and other Southern products before the Senate last Friday. He favored a tariff for revenue only.

The Palatka News is guilty of having made the same mistake The Evening News did at the beginning of the Legislature. It recently placed Syd L. Carter of Gainesville in the anti-prohibition column. Judge Carter is not an anti-prohibitionist.—Pensacola News.

Gainesville's fire department would do credit to a city of much larger proportions. The rapidity with which the boys extinguished the flames in the laundry building Sunday morning was wonderful, and the shell of the structure now stands as a monument of their efficiency.

A man was recently sentenced to prison for stealing a postage stamp. He was a most foolish man and should have known better. If he had stolen a railroad, or public lands or something else on an equally large scale he would be banquetted right and left and held in highest honor by Wall Street. But to steal a postage stamp! Could human depravity go any lower?

The recent gambling in wheat by which one man through cornering the commodity made a good-sized fortune is additional evidence that laws should be enacted to effectually make such transactions impossible. The rapid rise in wheat prices was of no benefit to the farmer while it was a positive injury to the consumer who has had to pay more for flour and bread.

The Southern Argus, published at Brooksville, says that information has been received from the authorities at Washington that the Government has determined to establish an experiment station in Hernando county and has accepted a tract of land offered by the Brooksville Tobacco Company. Considering the great climatic advantages which Florida possesses over other States it is strange that the National authorities have not taken more interest in enterprises of this character in this State.

Chronic office-seekers in Florida are paving the way to be set down upon hard by the people, remarks The Inverness Chronicle. Ex-Governors who persist in keeping in the limelight and are forever sucking at the public teat, will surely be relegated to the rear in future campaigns; could not be chosen to the exalted position of dog pelter, in Liberty county. Just why they should persist in putting themselves forward in the face of adverse reports by investigating committees, is a little more than one can comprehend.

THE BEARD RESOLUTION.

The Times-Union of last Saturday comments as follows upon the proposed suffrage amendment to the constitution which passed the State Senate last week and is now before the House:

"When a resolution was introduced in the Florida Senate proposing the disfranchisement of the negro, for the purpose of testing the constitutionality of the fifteenth amendment, we did not express any opinion about it, for The Times-Union is not in the habit of fighting windmills; but strange to say the Senate has adopted that resolution, and the adoption by the Senate makes it a matter worthy of notice. It becomes the duty of every Florida paper to try to save the State from the shame which would attach to such an utter piece of folly on the part of the Legislature.

"If there is a paper published anywhere on earth that is more entirely Southern than The Times-Union we have never seen it. Our readers know that no paper is quicker to resent any injustice to the South, and none shows greater pride in the history, the achievements, the manhood of the Southern people.

"It is not inconsistent with this love of the South, but a part of it, to bitterly oppose anything that tends to revive sectional animosities. Our people have passed through the fire, but they have come out of it triumphant so far as home rule is concerned. The North now stands aside and leaves the settlement of Southern questions to the white men of the South, without a protest.

"But there is a class at the South—thank God they are few—who grow more belligerent as the North grows more pacific. When the Republican party trusted to the bloody shirt for its victories; when it treated hatred of the South as its chief political asset; when it was trying to force negro domination on the South—then was the time, if ever, to fight back, but our firebrands were then not lighted. Now when peace reigns and the whole nation is pleased that the Southern white man is in control of his home affairs; when we have a President who is in closer sympathy with the South than any President has been in fifty years, the call to arms is sounded. The warriors go out to fight after the fight is over.

"But if we take only a utilitarian view of this question, the passage of this resolution would be inconceivably foolish. Why do we wish to disfranchise the negro in Florida to any greater extent than his ignorance has already disfranchised him? From the Escambia to Florida keys, from constable to Governor, what official has he elected? What policy has he in years forced on the State or on any county of the State? The passage of this resolution would not rob the negro of political power, for he has none. It would only sound the tocsin that would call the North to arms and array it once more in solid ranks against the South. It would reopen a fight that we have already won; it would place in jeopardy a victory that we have already gained.

"We endured negro suffrage when it was causing disaster and ruin, but we passed through that to a period of gain, and now we wish to throw away the gain.

"Do the gentlemen who are discussing this question not know that the South gained fifteen representatives in Congress and fifteen electoral votes by the enfranchisement of the negroes, and that we would lose more than that number now if they were disfranchised? Before the negroes become voters the South had only three-fifths representation on its negro population—that is to say, the representation of the 9,000,000 negroes would now be cut to 5,400,000. We would lose the representation of 3,600,000 people—that is to say, nineteen representatives in Congress and nineteen votes in the electoral college. No force bill would be necessary to accomplish this. It would be accomplished by a return to conditions that prevailed before the negro was enfranchised.

"So if this resolution accomplished its purpose it would cut Florida's representation in the House down to two instead of three, and Florida's electoral vote down to four instead of five. It would not add to the completeness of Democratic control of Florida, for that which is complete cannot be more complete. It would simply weaken the Democratic party by a loss of nineteen representatives and nineteen electoral votes.

"If it should fail—as it certainly will—it would only turn over to the Republicans the few Congressional districts at the North that the Democrats have carried recently, and it would rekindle the strife between the sections that are now at peace."

PROCLAMATION BY GOVERNOR.

Governor Albert W. Gilchrist has issued the following proclamation designating May 9th as Mother's Day in Florida:

"The attention of the people of the State of Florida is invited to the beautiful custom, inaugurated in many of the other States, of paying special tribute on at least one day in the year to the best friend of each and every one of us—our mothers.

"Therefore, I, Albert W. Gilchrist, Governor of the State of Florida, do hereby designate and proclaim Sunday, May 9, 1909, as 'Mother's Day' and recommend that it be observed as such in all homes and churches by the people of this State. Mother's Day should really be every day in the year.

"On this particular day it is recommended that the custom observed in other States be followed by each person wearing a white carnation, its whiteness standing for purity, its form for beauty, its fragrance for love, its wide field for charity, and its lasting quality for faithfulness—all being a true mother's virtues.

"In those portions of the State in which there are no carnations now in bloom, it is recommended that the white rose be used instead, the rose being universally recognized as the queen of all flowers. It also possesses the characteristics of the carnation.

"It is recommended that the various churches arrange a suitable program for Mother's Day, Sunday, May 9, 1909, and that each person pay some suitable special attention to his mother, if she is living, and to her memory, if she is dead.

"Done at Tallahassee, the Capital, this 1st day of May, A. D. 1909.

"ALBERT W. GILCHRIST,
"Governor of the State of Florida.
"By the Governor:
"H. CLAY CRAWFORD,
"Secretary of State."

BELL NOTES.

BELL, May 4.—The trustees have started the public school building and from the design of foundation it will be a covenient structure—something that has been needed here for a long time.

On Sunday a mad dog circulated the town, biting J. W. Jones and Master Henry Philput and attacked Mr. Coleman, captain of the S. A. L. work train, who at once shot and killed the dog. The dog's head was cut off and forwarded to Jacksonville for inspection and the body was burned.

The cold come Saturday night and overcoats and wraps were in use.

Death of Infant.

News was received in Gainesville yesterday of the death of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. DeLand of Williston. The little one had been a sufferer for the past few weeks and everything possible was done to save its life. The funeral was held at that place and their large number of friends extend condolence to the heart-broken parents.

COUNTRY CANDIDATES COMING TO THE FRONT

ALL PARTIES ACTIVE IN GREAT CONTEST FOR PRIZES.

Several Changes in the Standing of the Candidates and All Contestants Are Working.

The result of yesterday's canvass was a surprise all around, for many of the candidates changed places and the leaders will now see that there are others after the handsome prizes offered.

The diamond has arrived and will be mounted by L. C. Smith and placed on exhibition—it is a beauty—and the handsome pianos will also be placed on exhibition as soon as they can arrive from the factory.

Interest in the country seems to be keener than in the city, as two of the candidates received over the 30,000 mark yesterday and quite a number of them reached up into the thousands. Remember the large list of merchants in the contest and when you are working for The Sun you can also be putting in a good word for them. They will all count and in the end will prove valuable for you.

THE PAIN MADE HER FAINT

"For almost four years I had a sore on my leg," says Mrs. Olive Hurd of Madison, N. H., "and this spring a doctor healed it up. I felt fine for about a month but had to be on my feet a good deal and above my knee came a swelling as big as my fist. It hung down and was as red as if it had been blistered and so sore that I could hardly get around. The cords of my leg seemed to be stiff and the pain was so bad at times that it made me faint.

"One of the neighbors told me about Sloan's Liniment so I got a bottle and put some right on. Next morning I could walk over so much better and I kept right on using the Liniment night and morning. It took down all the swelling, and the redness and soreness have gone too. I shall never be without Sloan's Liniment in the house again and will recommend it to all suffering friends."

BILL FOR DIVORCE.

In the Circuit Court, Eighth Judicial Circuit, Alachua County, Florida—In Chancery—J. Fletcher Dell vs Laurena Keller Dell—Order of Publication, Bill for Divorce.

It appearing by affidavit annexed to the bill filed in the above stated cause that Laurena Keller Dell, the defendant therein named, is a non-resident of the State of Florida, but is a resident of the City of Savannah in the State of Georgia, and that there is no person in the State of Florida the service of a subpoena upon whom would bind said defendant, and that she is over the age of twenty-one years. It is therefore ordered that said non-resident defendant, be and she is hereby required to answer to the Bill of Complaint filed in said cause on or before Monday, the 7th day of June, A. D. 1909, otherwise the allegations of said bill will be taken as confessed by said defendant.

It is further ordered that this order be published once a week for four consecutive weeks in The Gainesville Sun, a newspaper published in said county and State.

This May 4th, 1909.

NUMEROUS LIQUOR CASES BEFORE CIRCUIT COURT

H. L. Setzer of High Springs Plead Guilty to Charge. Bexley-Osteen Case Today.

The Circuit Court was called to order at 10:45 o'clock Wednesday morning, Judge J. T. Wills presiding, with other court officials in their respective positions.

The grand jury came into open court, and when the roll was called and each juror responded as his name was called, the following report was made:

State vs. John Atkinson and Cliff Atkinson, breaking and entering a railroad depot with intent to commit a misdemeanor, a true bill.

State vs. J. E. English, forgery, and uttering a forged instrument, a true bill. Defendant was called, and, failing to answer, bond was estreated and the clerk was instructed to issue capias.

Defendants Arraigned.

Will Sparks, the youthful negro who was on Tuesday indicted upon a charge of rape, was arraigned, when the indictment was read to him and he entered a plea of not guilty. Sparks will be represented by Attorney T. B. Ellis, Jr., by appointment of the court, the defendant stating that he was unable to employ a lawyer.

John and Cliff Atkinson, two young white men who were indicted upon a charge of breaking and entering the depot at Tacoma, were brought into court, and took their position on the prisoners' bench. Upon being informed by the court of the indictment and its specifications, Judge Wills asked the defendants whether or not they had employed counsel, to which they replied in the negative, but stated they would do so immediately if given the opportunity, whereupon they were permitted to secure a lawyer, engaging Attorney Evans Haile. The father of the young men was present during this proceeding. The State in this case announced ready for trial.

Pleaded Guilty to Selling Liquor.

H. L. Setzer of High Springs was arraigned upon a charge of selling liquor in a county which had voted against the sale of same. When asked by State Attorney Rivers whether he was guilty or not guilty, with an impatient hesitancy the defendant replied "guilty." Mr. Setzer was permitted to go until Tuesday of the coming week under the same bond which he has been carrying since his indictment.

Bonds Ordered Estreated.

In the case of I. P. Stephens and Lou Stephens, charged with selling liquor in a dry county, the names of defendants being called with no response, bond was estreated and capias ordered. Attorney Evans Haile, who represents the defendants, stated for the information of the court that Mr. Stephens had been in attendance upon the court during Tuesday, but that in the afternoon he went to Alachua for his wife, the other defendant, and requested the court to withold estreating of the bond until afternoon, as his clients would be present in the court room at that time. State Attorney Rivers insisted upon estreatment, however, which was granted.

Court adjourned until 2:30 o'clock p. m.

Afternoon Session.

The afternoon session of the court was called at 3:45 p. m., there being no business to require the attention of the court until that hour.

Pate Sims, charged with breaking and entering a freight car with intent to commit a misdemeanor, was first called. Sims, who is nothing more than a lad of eighteen or thereabout, and who had slept in jail overnight because he could not secure bond, stated through his attorney, J. N. Stripling, that his bond had been secured. Sims came into court wearing short trousers, and looked the boy all over. His features are entirely juvenile, his actions carry out his expression, and his manner appears entirely indifferent, as though of a modest, indifferent boy. Pate cannot be more than eighteen, and may be a few years less in age.

"The court has set this bond at $200," quickly but cautiously remarked Judge Wills, as the defendant was placed in plain view before him.

"The bond has been secured," replied Attorney Stripling, for the defense.

"Then, under the circumstances, the bond having been secured with all the requirements, the defendant is discharged for the further order of the court."

Pate looked satisfied, and felt that he had won a great victory. He got up to leave, when Sheriff Ramsey said: "Pate, there is seventy-five cents due this office for executing a new bond. Have you got the money?"

Pate instantly replied that he had not the money, but said: "Mr. Sheriff, if you will give me ten minutes I will 'raise', the seventy-five," to which the sheriff answered, after looking into his eyes, he was willing to give. Pate came back in less than ten minutes with the seventy-five cents required as the fee, and was released under bond until further ordered.

J. E. English, colored, who was arraigned by indictment in the morning upon a charge of forgery and uttering a forged instrument, was brought into court by Sheriff Ramsey. There seemed to be a misunderstanding in this case, as English declared he had been at the court constantly during the session, except at the period when the indictment was returned and his presence was desired. He entered a plea of not guilty.

The afternoon session was taken in arraigning the following defendants:

L. J. Knight, criminal trespass and grand larceny; arraigned and pleaded not guilty.

Sam Williams, charged with selling liquor in a dry county. Name called and defendant being indisposed, suffering in the corridor below, postponement was taken. Williams appeared to be suffering from some nervous trouble which would not permit his removal, hence he was sent to a hospital. His case will be taken up later.

Alex Stephens, charged with selling liquor in a county which has voted against the sale of same, plead not guilty.

John Hall was arraigned upon a charge of selling liquor in a county which had voted against the sale of same. Plead not guilty and a bond of $250 was required.

Lydia Drake, an old colored woman well-known in Gainesville, and who resided for a long time on West Church street, afterwards on North Arredondo, and who is now engaged in the restaurant business on West Union street, was arraigned on the indictment of selling liquor in a dry county, and the woman indignantly pleaded not guilty. She begged the court for the privilege of giving an immediate bond, but the sheriff took charge in the regular order.

There being no further business, the court adjourned until 9 o'clock this morning, when the juror venires, both of which are special, will be returnable at 9 o'clock.

The Bexley-Osteen Case.

The case of the State vs. Bexley and Osteen, murder, is set for today, but it is not probable that a jury can be secured before Friday night or Saturday, as considerable difficulty is anticipated in securing same. The jury will be empanelled as quickly as possible with all respect to fairness, however, and it is believed that this famous case will be started in earnest before the close of the present week.

A Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our deepest and lasting gratitude to one and all for the many acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy shown toward us during the sickness and death and burial of our beloved daughter, Pearl, and for the many wreaths and boquets of flowers that covered her entire grave. Many, many, thanks. Buried April 28, 1909, at Antioch. Respectfully and gratefully yours,

MR. AND MRS. A. B. COX.

LaCrosse, May 4, 1909.

SPRING TERM CIRCUIT COURT NOW IN SESSION

London is charged with the murder of Mitchell Smith, another negro, at Clark, on the night of Saturday, April 24th, being arrested a short time afterwards and placed in jail here. Commanding him to rise, the court stated the indictment, murder in the first degree. Judge Wills asked the prisoner if he had secured counsel to defend him, when London replied that he had left his fate in the hands of Carter & Layton.

The clerk was instructed to draw from the jury box all names remaining in said box, and issue to the sheriff a special venire, returnable Thursday morning at 9 o'clock, said names to be used in securing a panel in the case of the State vs. Bexley and Osteen.

Civil Cases.

During the forenoon the trial docket was taken up, and the following civil cases disposed of:

C. A. Steen & Co. vs. E. K. Anderson, assumpsit; continued.

H. D. Wood vs. Atlantic Coast Line Railorad Co., damages; dismissed on motion of plaintiff.

A. W. Taylor vs. Gainesville and Gulf Railroad, assumpsit; continued.

F. D. Warner, manager, for use of W. A. Strickland, vs. Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Co., assumpsit, damages. Judge disqualified.

S. J. Thomas Co. vs. C. E. and W. N. Dunham, assumpsit, damages; continued.

S. B. Hubbard Co. vs. C. E. and W. N. Dunham, assumpsit, damages; continued.

Whereupon court adjourned until 2:30 o'clock p. m.

Afernoon Session.

The court convened in the afternoon, but the only business of importance to come before the body was the report of the grand jury, and the bringing of two prisoners into court.

The grand jury came into open court and presented the following report:

State vs. John Hurd, receiving stolen goods, a true bill.

State vs. Olithia and Rosa Lismore, grand larceny, a true bill.

State vs. William Sparks, rape, a true bill

State vs. L. J. Knight, criminal trespass and grand larceny, a true bill.

State vs. Pate Sims, breaking and entering a railroad car, a true bill.

State vs. David Walker, assault with intent to murder, a true bill.

Knight and Sims are white.

In the case of the State vs. J. W. Brown, robbery, the grand jury failed to return an indictment, and the defendant was discharged.

Will Sparks, against whom an indictment was returned for rape, was brought into court, and when asked if he had employed an attorney to defend him, replied in the negative. When asked if he had the means to employ a lawyer, he also answered in the negative, and Attorney T. B. Ellis, Jr., was appointed by the court to defend the prisoner.

David Walker, colored, was arraigned upon a charge of assault with intent to murder one Aaron Williams, to which charge he pleaded not guilty. Walker will be defended by Attorney Evans Haile.

Court adjourned until 9 o'clock Wednesday morning.

An Unusual Incident.

A rather impressive and unusual incident occurred during Tuesday, a proceeding which at once appealed to the admiration of those who witnessed it.

During the day His Honor Judge Wills was confronted by a colored woman who informed that dignitary that she had come to "report." Estelle Knowles, at the fall term of court, had been indicted by the grand jury upon a charge of selling whiskey in a dry county. Under certain existing conditions, when the defendant was arraigned, she enlisted the sympathy of the court, and was paroled with an admonition to "go and sin no more," but was ordered to report at the next regular term.

Faithful to her trust, the woman presented herself before His Honor Tuesday, which explained the statement that she had come to "report," for further consideration and indulgence before the bar of justice which had been so lenient with her.

Judge Wills admitted that he had about forgotten the event of the fall term, and was surprised at the appearance of the woman, whom he did not expect to see again, except possibly at some future arraignment upon a similar charge.

"You have been faithful to your promise, Estelle?" inquired the Judge.

"I have, your honor," was the ready and happy response. "I thank you that I have reformed, and have not sold or attempted to sell a drop of whiskey since you put me on parole. I could not go back on my promise, after the court had been so lenient with me."

"Well, the court will try you again. You may go, provided you will renew your promise to be a good woman and continue to refrain from selling whiskey against the law of your county."

Estelle promised, and left the presence of those about her visibly affected, with a heart full of gratitude, declaring that "the goodness of the court" would reform her if everything else failed.

A PRETTY VERMONT HOME.

Capt. Hutchinson is a Stanch Friend of Peruna, Made so by Personal Experience.

The Home of Captain Hutchinson, of Montpelier, Vt.

Chronic Catarrh and Throat Trouble.

"It gives me pleasure to write you this letter at this time on account of the good your Peruna has done me when I was quite done up with a very bad cold.

"I could hardly perform my ordinary duties, but from the use of Peruna I am almost restored to health.

"I am quite convinced that it has helped me from chronic catarrh, to which I am subject. It has also benefited my throat.

"I can truly recommend it as the best all-round medicine it has been my privilege to become acquainted with. Of this I am quite convinced from my own experience."—Capt. Lemuel M. Hutchinson, Montpelier, Vt.

Can Now Eat Anything.

Mr. J. W. Pritchard, Columbia City, Ind., writes: "I am pleased to say that I have been cured of catarrh of the stomach by Peruna.

"I could hardly eat anything that agreed with me. Before I would get half through my meal my stomach would fill with gas, causing me much distress and unpleasant feelings for an hour or two after each meal.

"But, thanks to your Peruna, I am now completely cured, and can eat anything I want to without any of the distressing symptoms. I can now enjoy my meals as I used to do, and it is all due to Dr. Hartman and his wonderful medicine, Peruna.

"It has been one year since I was cured, and I am all O. K. yet, so I know I am cured."

A Nervous Breakdown.

Mr. Lewis Zim, editor and proprietor of "St. Augustine Meteor," writes:

"Any man in public work finds at times that he is under a peculiar nerve strain. I found that with it I lost my appetite, and my brain seemed to work unceasingly during waking and sleeping hours, so I was tired and worn out in the morning.

"Tonics and invigorators were suggested and tried, but nothing was of benefit to me but Peruna. That is certainly a remarkable medicine. I was restored in three weeks to my normal healthy condition, my appetite returned and my sleep was refreshing."

also, and that when he cannot conscientiously do what his constituents conscientiously desire him to do, he ought to be conscientious enough to let them select a representative in harmony with them." He says platform pledges are not only binding, but sacred.

The Oregon plan of electing United States Senators by direct vote of the people is favored, as well as the right of States to regulate railroads and monopolies.

Of the whiskey question, he says:

"I will not discuss the liquor question, because different phases of the subject are presented in different States, and I am not sufficiently well acquainted with the situation in Florida to offer advice. I venture to say, however, that there is a reform which ought to receive the support of all, no matter whether they believe in prohibition or in the regulation of the liquor traffic through the license system. The reform that I speak of is this, that the Federal Government should discontinue the issue of licenses for the sale of liquor in territory where the local authorities have prohibited the sale. No matter whether the prohibition operates over an entire State, a county, or precinct or a city wherever the local authorities decide to prohibit the sale of liquor, their decision ought to be respected by the Federal Government, whereas today the Federal Government stands ready to go into partnership with any person who desires to violate the local law. According to the terms of the partnership the Government is to receive $25 for each license issued, and the one paying the $25 for a license to sell liquor where the local authorities prohibit it takes the chance of getting enough to reimburse him for what he has paid the Government, and to give him a profit besides."

Discussing the guaranty of bank deposits, Mr. Bryan says: "A large part of the bank's prestige is due to the fact that it does business under a charter granted by the Government and is so regulated and inspected as to give the depositors confidence in its solvency, and it is only fair that in return for the advantages which the law confers, the bank should bear the light tax necessary to protect every depositor from possibility of loss. But the guaranty of deposits, by drawing money to the bank, would give the bank an increased earning power in excess of the tax paid."

He closes with a reference to the adoption of the initiative and referendum, adding that they are being adopted by State after State and that they perfect our Government by bringing the Government and the people nearer together.

BUSY WEEK AHEAD FOR FLORIDA LEGISLATURE

Calendars Filled in Both Houses and Committees Are Hard at Work---The Harris Bill.

TALLAHASSEE, May 3.—Both houses of the Legislature begin the new week with well-filled calendars and the week will be a busy one.

The Senate will maintain its three-hour daily session, while the House will stick to its four hours a day and will probably hold several night sessions as well.

The Harris bill which enables parties to sue the State in certain instances will be favorably reported by the Judiciary Committee in the Senate and may be acted upon during the week. This bill will enable the Wailes claim to be brought against the State through the courts and was introduced with that purpose in view. It stands a strong chance of being passed.

The Senate has so far introduced 313 bills this season, against 310 the same time last year, and the House 469, against 358 last session.

The committees are working hard and much legislation will be disposed of during the week.

Saturday's Sessions.

Resolutions were adopted by the House Saturday inviting Senator John S. Beard of Pensacola and United States Senator Money of Mississippi to address that body upon the Beard disfranchisement measure. Senator Money is a close friend of Senator Beard, and strongly favors his measure. Representative Robertson of Suwannee was the only member of the House speaking against the resolutions.

The House put up a pretty stiff fight against the bill abolishing the office of special counsel for the State Railroad Commission, and creating the office of Assistant Attorney-General, so that that official could act as legal adviser for the commission. The measure was warmly debated, and was finally killed by a large vote. During the debate an appeal from the decision of the chair was taken on a point by Representative MacWilliams of St. Johns, but the chair was sustained.

An important bill passed was the one which practically calls for a reforming of the reform school at Marianna. The bill contemplates many changes in the present system of commitment and the conduct of the institution generally.

The Hillsborough county division fight was started with the introduction of a bill by Representative Butler of Dade county, creating the county of Pinellas. Messrs. W. L. Straub and S. D. Harris of St. Petersburg are in the capital, and are directing the fight for the creation of the new county.

Among the resolutions introduced in the House Saturday was a memorial to Congress by Mr. Doke of Alachua asking for duty on phosphate. Representative Carter introduced a bill to require a full crew on freight trains.

Only local bills were taken up for consideration by the Senate at the Saturday session and it was tame throughout. Over twenty local measures were disposed of and so removed from the calendar.

MADDOX—ADAMS.

MICANOPY, May 3.—There was a quiet but happy marriage solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Adams on Wednesday evening, April 28th, at 7:30 o'clock, when their daughter, Miss Annie, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. R. L. Maddox of Lakeland.

The bride was beautifully attired in white China silk trimmed in white baby Irish lace insertion and white satin ribbon. The groom looked his best in the conventional black.

The groom is a popular young man of Lakeland and numbers his friends by his acquaintances, while the bride is one of Micanopy's fairest young ladies and loved by all who know her.

The parlor was beautifully decorated with ferns, lilies and roses.

After the ceremony congratulations were in order, then the guests were invited into the dining-room, where bountiful refreshments were served.

The happy couple left for Lakeland on the 29th with the good wishes of friends that the snow wings of innocence and love protect them throughout life's pilgrimage.

Mr. Maddox is to be congratulated upon winning such a jewel.

HOUSE RESTRICTS SPEED OF AUTOS IN FLORIDA

Coca-Cola Had Close Call---Bankers Given Hearing. Session of Senate Was Short.

TALLAHASSEE, May 4.—After a long discussion the House yesterday passed the Dupont bill restricting the speed of automobiles to twenty miles an hour in the State, and requiring chauffeurs to help ladies or children to get their teams by their cars when the horses become frightened. The bill originally set the maximum speed at seven miles, but it was amended to twenty and then passed after much discussion.

Coco-cola came near getting into the anti-narcotic bill in the afternoon. The anti-narcotic bill was under consideration when Representative Stokes offered an amendment, including coco-cola in its provisions. The amendment was being argued when adjournment was taken.

The House passed to the third reading the bill prohibiting the intermingling of the races or sexes among prisoners in the county jails. The bill was unfavorably reported because of the expense it was stated would have to be incurred by counties in changing present jails to conform with the law.

Several members took the stand, however, that the principle was of greater importance than the expense which some counties might be put to and passed the bill on to third reading.

The House yesterday began a grinding routine. A resolution by Representative Knight of Bradford was adopted by which the House will meet daily from 9 o'clock until noon, and from 3 o'clock until 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

The joint House and Senate committees on banking spent the afternoon listening to arguments from members of the committee from the State Bankers' Association against the proposed bills relative to State guaranty of bank deposits.

Bills on Second Reading.

House Bill No. 121, by Mr. King of Orange—To provide for a road tax for cities and towns imposed by the votes of each city or town. Third reading.

House Bill No. 3, by Mr. Carter of Alachua—To protect the fishes of Alachua county. Rules waived and put on final reading. Passed.

House Bill No. 6, by Mr. Carter of Alachua—To provide for the investment by the Board of Education of the principal of State school fund in certain obligations and mode of said obligations. Passed over informally.

House Bill No. 27, by Mr. Pattishall of Hillsborough—Providing for the confirmation by the judge granting the order to sell real estate belonging to infants. To third reading.

House Bill No. 30, by Mr. Epperson of Levy—Concerning the killing of stock by railroads. Indefinitely postponed unanimously.

House Bill No. 35, by Mr. Davis of Madison—Prescribing the manner of conditional sale of personal property where immediate delivery and continued possession are given, invalid as against subsequent purchasers, pledges, mortgages and other lien holders in good faith and without notice, unless recorded, and prescribing the method for recording the same.

Mr. Chase spoke against the measure.

Mr. Stokes spoke for it.

Afternoon Session.

A resolution was introduced by Mr. Calkins of Nassau, and adopted, that the chair appoint a committee of three to meet Senator D. H. Money.

Senator Beard was made honorary member of the committee.

The Speaker appointed Calkins, Cox and Thornton on the committee.

The Beard disfranchisement measure was then made a special order for Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Trammell of Calhoun introduced House Bill No. 481, prescribing punishment for certain misdemeanor, and under waiver of the rules, the bill was placed on second and third reading and passed.

To third reading:

Senate Bill No. 16, Beard, regulating osteopaths and osteopathy, to third reading.

House Bill No. 113, Neeley of Leon, creating office of pardon attorney. To third reading.

No. 115, Wells of Leon, requiring that public notice be given when any of the public lands of State are to be sold in large tracts. To third reading.

No. 117, Light of Marion, relating to shooting of alligators and limpkins on Ocklawaha river. Passed informally.

No. 153, Cox of Polk, to prohibit the sale or giving away of opium, morphine, cocaine, or certain other narcotics. To third reading.

THE SENATE.

A quiet session was held by the Senate Monday morning and comparatively few bills were introduced. The session was a short one. Much of the time was taken up in the discussion of a bill allowing Judge J. B. Wall of the Sixth Judicial Circuit clerical aid. The bill was passed to third reading, but was stoutly opposed.

An important measure introduced was one by Senator McMullen intended to restrict the shipment of alcoholic liquors into dry towns, cities, precincts or counties.

Senator McMullen also introduced an important primary election bill which proposes many changes in the present law.

Senator Adkins introduced a bill regarding county depositories, which is regarded to be of considerable importance.

Committees Appointed.

Committee appointments were announced as follows:

To draft resolutions on the death of Senators Mallory and Bryan—Senators Broome and Baker of the Twenty-ninth.

To inspect State Reform School—Senator Sloan.

To inspect State Deaf, Dumb and Blind Institute at St. Augustine—Senators Crill, Baker, of the Twentieth, Flournoy.

To investigate insane asylum—Senators Leggett and Adkins.

To investigate report I. I. Investigating Commission—Senators Flournoy, Henderson and McMullen.

CURED ITCHING PAINFUL HUMOR

Which had Spread Over Face, Body and Arms—Swellings were as Large as a Dollar—When they Broke, Sores would Not Heal—Suffered 3 Years.

MADE SOUND AND WELL BY 3 SETS OF CUTICURA

"My trouble began about three years ago with little black swellings scattered over my face and neck. They would disappear but they would leave little black scars that would itch at times so I couldn't keep from scratching them. Larger swellings would appear in the same place and they were so painful I could hardly bear it and my clothes would stick to the sores. The first doctor I went to said the disease was scrofula, but the trouble only got worse and spread. By this time it was all over my arms and the upper part of my body in big swellings as large as a dollar. It was so painful that I could not bear to lie on my back at night. The second doctor pronounced my disease inflammation of the lymphatic glands. He stopped the swellings, but when they would break the places would not heal. He tried everything that he could but to no effect. He said I might be cured but it would take a long time. I bought a set of the Cuticura Remedies and used them according to directions and in less than a week some of the places were nearly well. I continued with the Cuticura Remedies until I had used three sets, and now I am sound and well. The disease lasted three years from the time it commenced until I was cured. Before Christmas something broke out on my seven year old brother's hands in the form of large sores. I tried everything I could think of but to no effect until I happened to think of Cuticura and one application cured him. Also, not long ago, my sister got a bad burn on her ankle. I have been using Cuticura on that and it gave her scarcely any trouble. O. L. Wilson, Puryear, Tenn., Feb. 8, 1908."

Warm baths with Cuticura Soap, gentle anointings with Cuticura Ointment and mild doses of Cuticura Pills, afford immediate relief and point to a speedy cure of torturing, disfiguring humors of the skin, scalp and blood of infants, children and adults, when all else fails.

Cuticura Soap (25c.) to Cleanse the Skin. Cuticura Ointment (50c.) to Heal the Skin and Cuticura Resolvent (Pills, 25c. per vial of 60) to Purify the Blood. Sold throughout the world. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston, Mass.

COLUMBIA COUNTY WILL REMAIN DRY

PROHIBITIONISTS WIN IN SPIRITED CONTEST MONDAY.

The Victory Celebrated Monday Night by a Parade of Men, Women and Children.

LAKE CITY, May 4.—One of the most exciting elections ever held in this county ended last night when the polls closed on the "wet" and "dry" contest, and Columbia remains dry by a majority of about 135.

The vote in Lake City gave the drys 233, wets 154; Fort White, drys 74, wets 6; Columbia City, drys 38, wets 14; Benton, drys 7, wets 10; Bells Mill, drys 23, wets 43; Watertown, drys 7, wets 7; Lulu gave the drys a majority of 9.

The contest was hard-fought, and in every precinct in Lake City the women and children remained at the polls all day in the rain and worked for temperance with songs and pleadings.

Last night the Lake City band headed a parade of about 500 men, women and children, who celebrated the dry victory.

Boys Will Be Boys

And are always getting scratches, cuts, sprains, bruises, bumps, burns or scalds. Don't neglect such things—they may result seriously if you do. Apply Ballard's Snow Liniment according to directions right away and it will relieve the pain and heal the trouble. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Crew Near Ocala.

From Tuesday's Daily Sun:

The two A. C. L. working crews engaged in relaying the new 70-pound steel rail from this city south have now reached a distance of about two miles north of Ocala and they will enter that city the present week. When the entire roadway is completed it will enable the management to put any kind of trains on this division that are run in this part of the country, as they will have the road-bed and the rail to stand the extra work.

DO YOU OWN A HYOMEI INHALER?

If you have a little Hyomei inhaler (pronounced High-o-me) in your home you have a treasure.

Into this hard rubber inhaler you can pour a few drops of Hyomei and, presto, you have the best little physician for catarrh, coughs, colds, bronchitis, croup and asthma, the world has ever known.

When you breathe Hyomei you bring the healing virtues of the mountainous forests to your home. You get the very same healing, antiseptic air that you would breathe if you resided in the forests of pine and eucalyptus of inland Australia, where catarrh or consumption was never known to exist.

If you have a Hyomei inhaler in your home, get a bottle of Hyomei for 50 cents.

If you have not an inhaler, ask for a complete outfit, which costs but $1.00, and includes an inhaler, a bottle of Hyomei, and simple instructions for use.

Hyomei is sold and guaranteed by J. W. McCollum & Co. to cure catarrh, asthma or bronchitis, or money back. It will relieve a cold in five minutes, and will break it up in five hours. It gives most gratifying relief to consumption sufferers, and is sold by leading druggists everywhere.

MI-O-NA Cures Indigestion

It relieves stomach misery, sour stomach, belching, and cures all stomach disease or money back. Large box of tablets 50 cents. Druggists in all towns.

Despair and Despondency

No one but a woman can tell the story of the suffering, the despair, and the despondency endured by women who carry a daily burden of ill-health and pain because of disorders and derangements of the delicate and important organs that are distinctly feminine. The tortures so bravely endured completely upset the nerves if long continued.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a positive cure for weakness and disease of the feminine organism.

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG, SICK WOMEN WELL.

It allays inflammation, heals ulceration and soothes pain. It tones and builds up the nerves. It fits for wifehood and motherhood. Honest medicine dealers sell it, and have nothing to urge upon you as "just as good." It is non-secret, non-alcoholic and has a record of forty years of cures. Ask Your Neighbors. They probably know of some of its many cures.

If you want a book that tells all about woman's diseases, and how to cure them at home, send 21 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce to pay cost of mailing only, and he will send you a free copy of his great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser—revised, up-to date edition, in paper covers. In handsome cloth-binding, 31 stamps. Address Dr. R.V. Pierce, Buffalo, N.Y.

CAUGHT FOR SELLING BOOZE.

Alachua Negro Brought Here on Charge of Handling "Corn."

Deputy Sheriff E. Marcionny brought to this city Monday Sam Williams, a negro of Alachua who is charged with selling booze and who was arrested in that town and fined $25 and costs.

The darkey has been suspected for some time but the officers have been unable to secure any evidence that would be sufficient for conviction until Saturday evening, when they were rewarded by catching him with the goods and in the very act of disposing of some of the liquid.

He was placed in jail and will be given a hearing at this term of court.

A Smile

Is a pretty hard thing to accomplish when you're blue, bilious and out of sorts. There is a sure cure for all kinds of stomach and liver complaints—constipation and dyspepsia. Ballard's Herbine is mild, yet absolutely effective in all cases. Price 50 cents per bottle. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Commissioners in Session.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of County Commissioners is now in session, all members being present. Besides the regular bills that will be paid, quite a number of minor matters will be brought up for adjustment.

A Card.

This is to certify that all druggists are authorized to refund your money if Foley's Honey and Tar fails to cure your cough or cold. It stops the cough, heals the lungs and prevents pneumonia and consumption. Contains no opiates. The genuine is in a yellow package. J. W. McCollum & Co.

School Board Meet.

From Wednesday's Daily Sun:

The County School Board were in session nearly all of yesterday, a full board being present. This is the season of the year when their labors decrease to a certain extent, as many of the county schools have closed for the term.

If you desire a clear complexion take Foley's Orino Laxative for constipation and liver trouble as it will stimulate these organs and thoroughly cleanse your system, which is what everyone needs in the spring in order to feel well. J. W. McCollum & Co.

The true friend is he who is more ready to visit us in adversity than in prosperity. False friends forsake when the tide is against us.

Delegates to St. Augustine.

From Wednesday's Daily Sun:

Mesdames J. W. Tench, G. K. Broome, J. D. Stringfellow, J. M. Taylor and J. L. Medlin, represented the J. J. Finley Chapter, and Misses Frances McDowall and Lucile Glass of the Mildred Lee Chapter, U. D. C., left yesterday to represent their respective chapters at the State convention in St. Augustine.

Many weak, nervous women have been restored to health by Foley's Kidney Remedy as it stimulates the kidneys so they will eliminate the waste matter from the blood. Impurities depress the nerves, causing nervous exhaustion and other ailments. Commence today and you will soon be well. Pleasant to take. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Marriage of W. C. Marsh.

The many friends of W. C. Marsh, who was employed and lived in this city for about two years, will be pleased at the information that he is now among the benedicts, having recently married a young lady of Roanoke, Va., which city he is now making his home.

If you want to feel well, look well and be well, take Foley's Kidney Remedy. It tones up the kidneys and bladder, purifies the blood and restores health and strength. Pleasant to take and contains no harmful drugs. Why not commence today? J. W. McCollum & Co.

J. H. Osteen of High Springs arrived in the city yesterday and will spend the week here on business.

Plank's Chill Tonic is guaranteed to cure chills, fever, colds and lagrippe. Price 25c. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Miss Ines Thomas, who has been visiting at Kanapaha for the past two days, returned to her home here yesterday.

Capt. J. W. Carter of Micanopy, one of the oldest citizens of that thriving section, was transacting business in the city yesterday.

J. P. Jones of Jonesville, a progressive planter of that section, was in the city yesterday on a combined business and pleasure trip.

Porter Smith, member of the firm of Smith & Tompkins, Newberry, was in the city yesterday, having been summoned here to attend court.

John G. White of Newberry was in the city yesterday. He came for the purpose of paying up his taxes and to look after other business matters.

Waterman Johnson, one of the substantial citizens of Micanopy, was a visitor to the city yesterday. While here he made an agreeable call at this office.

J. L. Grimes, a successful merchant of High Springs, is among the visitors to the city, having been summoned here for the present session of circuit court.

Mrs. H. H. McCreary of Gainesville is in the city, en route to the State U. D. C. Convention at St. Augustine. She is the guest of Mrs. M. C. Drysdale.—Metropolis, 3rd.

Mrs. J. L. Kelley left yesterday for Palatka, where she will spend the next day or so visiting friends before proceeding to the State meeting of the U. D. C., which convenes in St. Augustine.

Capt. C. B. McCleuny and son, Arthur, of Cadillac, were among the out-of-town visitors here Monday. The former is owner of one of the largest peach orchards in the western section and will ship a large quantity of fruit the coming season.

Rev. S. B. Rogers left yesterday for Apopka, where he goes for the purpose of checking up the books and entering the duties of secretary-treasurer of the State Board of Missions. The office will be removed to this city and it is the intention of Rev. Rogers to make Gainesville headquarters for an indefinite period.

John Young, the energetic supervising architect of the Government buildings for both Gainesville and Ocala, was here yesterday looking after his duties connected with his position. He states that he has not heard from the contractors as to the exact time they would return here to commence work, but thinks that it will be only a matter of a short while now before the concrete work will commence.

From Wednesday's Daily Sun:

Miss Rosa Lee Rives of High Springs, who has been spending the past few days in this city visiting relatives and friends, returned to her home yesterday.

F. M. Cellon left yesterday for Albany, Ga., where he will remain for the next few days on business. He formerly lived in that city and has a large circle of friends there.

T. H. Blitch, jump inspector of the A. C. L. for this section, is among the visitors to the city. He was summoned here as a witness in a "blind tiger" case that will come up from High Springs.

A. M. Ellis of Alachua, who is here attending court, was a pleasant caller at this office yesterday and renewed his subscription for two years. He is like a large number of citizens—has a favorite in the piano contest and wanted to place a thousand votes to her credit.

Capt. Thos. McCredie of Micanopy is in the city attending court and at the same time meeting his numerous friends. He has a daughter who is proving a hard-worker in the contest for one of the handsome pianos to be given away and he has also gone to work and will use his every effort to secure the sufficient number of votes to make her a winner.

Among the visitors to the city attending court is J. K. Stephens of Worthington Springs. Mr. Stephens owns and operates a large gunnery at that point, and is one of the leading spirits of that section of the county. He has been for many years a regular subscriber to The Twice-a-Week Sun, but has changed his name to the daily list, as he is desirous of keeping up more promptly with the happenings of the day.

From Thursday's Daily Sun:

J. F. Allwood of High Springs was a visitor to the city yesterday.

J. M. Everett, a substantial and prominent citizens of Donnie, is among the visitors here attending court. He is now extensively engaged in the contracting business in LaFayette county and his duties keep him away from home most of the time.

C. C. Martin of High Springs arrived in the city yesterday and will be here the remainder of the week, having been summoned as a witness before circuit court. He is now conducting a meat market at High Springs and states he is meeting with great success.

Fred S. Roux has returned from Atlanta, where he has been attending the Atlanta Dental College, and from which he has just graduated with honors. Out of a total of seventy-four who took the examination before the Georgia Dental Board, only thirty were successful, and Mr. Roux was among this number.

J. W. English, a successful trucker of the Tacoma section, was greeting his numerous friends in Gainesville yesterday. He states that his sister, who has entered the contest for the piano from her district, will give the other contestants a race for the top place, as they will at once start to work for the coveted prize.

CHILDREN'S EYES GUARDED

If there is anything wrong with your child's sight, it should have attention at once.

Headaches, tired and painful eyes and blured vision while reading or studying are symptoms of eye-strain.

By correcting the naturally defective sight of youth the wearing of glasses in more mature years will be avoided.

Neglect the sight now and sooner or later the child will have to wear glasses the rest of its life.

All our fitting is done scientifically by up-to-date optical methods. We make a specialty of correcting defective eyesight in both young and old.
